Frasier Season One: Emmy® Award winner Kelsey Grammer is Frasier? - the hilarious psychiatrist first seen on TV's Cheers and subsequently the star of this smash-hit comedy series. Making the move from Boston to his former hometown of Seattle, a newly divorced Dr. Frasier Crane (Grammer) finds himself on the radio airwaves as the host of his own call-in advice show.

The Good Son (Pilot) Dr. Frasier Crane (Kelsey Grammer) makes the cross country move from Boston to his hometown of Seattle - but it turns out that his life amidst his old haunts will take a few unexpected turns, thanks to both his family members and new co-workers at KACL radio.

Space Quest: A less-than-thrilled Frasier becomes determined to find some coveted personal space now that his father Martin (John Mahoney), Martin's home-care specialist Daphne Moon (Jane Leeves), and Martin's incorrigible dog, Eddie, have moved in with him.

Dinner At Eight: Frasier and his brother Niles decide to treat their father to an upscale dinner at one of Seattle's finest restaurants - but a lost reservation results in a less-than-savory dining experience.

I Hate Frasier Crane: It's a war of words that quickly escalates to a full-scale conflict when Frasier and a local Seattle newspaper columnist butt heads - in print and on the air.

Here's Looking At You: When Frasier gives Martin the gist of a telescope, Martin uses it to peruse the neighborhood - and "meets" a woman with a telescope of her own who's located in an adjacent building.

The Crucible: Frasier is shocked to discover that a treasured painting he owns, done by a famous local artist, turns out to have a surprising - and embarrassing - heritage.

Frasier Season Two And the gang's all here for the complete second season of this wry and witty sitcom - and what a season it is! Frasier Crane (Grammer) infuriates the entire city of Seattle when he complains about its rainy climate during his radio talk show. Meanwhile, his father Martin (John Mahoney) finds his favorite bar is slated for the wrecker's ball - and could it be that Frasier and Niles (David Hyde Pierce) are behind its demise? Roz (Peri Gilpin) considers a new job offer... Daphne (Jane Leeves) finds her privacy invaded... and Frasier's romantic island getaway with a new girlfriend is ruined when his ex-wife Lilith (Bebe Neuwirth) is discovered happily ensconced in an adjacent cottage! It's all 24 episodes of Frasier's riotous second season, presented in one highly entertaining four-disc collection.

Frasier Season Three: In the complete third season of this acclaimed sitcom, Frasier (Grammer) has encounters with both a woman from his past - Diane Chambers (Shelley Long) - and one in the future, in the form of new radio station manager Kate Costas (Mercedes Ruehl). Niles (David Hyde Pierce) is kicked out of the house by wife Maris; Martin (John Mahoney) is exposed as a budding songwriter for Frank Sinatra and both Daphne (Jane Leeves) and Roz (Peri Gilpin) attract some not-so-secret secret admirers! You'll enjoy non-stop laughs in all 24 episodes of Frasier's unrestrained 3rd season presented in this four-disc collection.

Frasier Season Four: Cupid's arrows fly in all directions in Season Four as romantic entanglements include Niles (David Hyde Pierce) and Daphne (Jane Leeves) as well as Martin (John Mahoney) and Sherry (Emmy-nominated guest star Marsha Mason). Frasier's scorecard is even more impressive: Frasier and a blind date arranged by Roz (Peri Gilpin); Frasier and a "mystery woman" who accidentally called his answering machine; and Frasier and...KACL co-worker Gil Chesterton (Edward Hibbert)! (Well, via an unexpected dream.) And to top the whole season off, Eddie is treated by a psychiatrist for doggie depression. The laughs come fast and frequent in this 24-episode, four-disc collection.

Frasier Season Five: Sibling rivalry between Frasier and Niles (David Hyde Pierce) leads to some riotous cases of one-upsmanship in Season Five. Which of the two will find out the winner as they vie for the same attractive woman? Meanwhile, Daphne (Jane Leeves) finds her favorite pub invaded by a familiar (and unwelcome) interloper; Roz (Peri Gilpin) is expecting a visit from the stork, and KACL's abrasive Bob "Bulldog" Briscoe becomes the hero of the day to all - all except Frasier who knows the untold story! It's the fifth side-splitting season of Frasier - yours to enjoy in this 24-episode, four-disc collection.

Frasier Season Six: What?! Frasier Crane, unemployed? Yep, that's the stunning predicament in Season Six when KACL switches its format to "salsa" and Frasier finds himself out of a job! Meanwhile, Niles (David Hyde Pierce) finds himself without a secret love to obsess when Daphne (Jane Leeves) is swept off her feet by a new suitor, Donny Douglas. And speaking of new suitors - Roz (Peri Gilpin) finds herself romantically entangled with the station's abrasive deejay Bob "Bulldog" Briscoe (Dan Butler) and Roz's mother Joanna lands a date with Frasier's irascible father, Martin (John Mahoney)! It's Season Six - and definitely a season to remember - in this wild and witty, 23-episode collection!

Frasier Season Seven: In this collection, the laughs can only shift into high gear when a heavily medicated Frasier inadvertently spills the beans to Daphne (Jane Leeves) about Niles (David Hyde Pierce) and his powerful infatuation for her - just as she is preparing for her wedding to Donny Douglas! Meanwhile, Roz (Peri Gilpin), against her better judgment, hires the recently fired Bob "Bulldog" Briscoe (Dan Butler) as a babysitter. And Martin (John Mahoney) must act quickly when a new acquaintance innocently sets him up on a date - with another man! It's Frasier - The Complete Seventh Season, with all 23 Season Seven episodes from one of television's most critically acclaimed and honored comedy series. Paramount/CBS

Frasier Season Eight: In Season 8, wedding bells chime a sour note when Daphne (Jane Leeves) flees her marriage ceremony to run off with Niles (David Hyde Pierce), and the two lovebirds - as well as a hapless Frasier - ultimately find themselves embroiled in a lawsuit as a result of the marital mayhem! Frasier also seeks the wisdom and advice of an old college professor, whom Frasier drafts as his "professional mentor." Martin (John Mahoney) lands a job as a night-shift security guard, while Niles (David Hyde Pierce) and Daphne (Jane Leeves) must endure an overseas visit from her conniving mother Gertrude and lecherous brother Simon. And Roz (Peri Gilpin) is swept off her feet by a charming and handsome new boyfriend, but is less than thrilled with his career choice: he's a garbageman! Enjoy unending laughs - as well as Frasier's reunion with some of his pals from Cheers in Boston.

Frasier Season Tenth: In Season Ten, Frasier's confrontation with an annoying stock market analyst at KACL results in the entire staff having to attend a sexual harassment seminar. Then Frasier's ex-wife Lilith shows up in Seattle with a plan to have another child - by Frasier! Roz (Peri Gilpin) prepares to train her new replacement at the radio station, while Martin (John Mahoney) finds himself running for their condominium board's presidency. Then the entire cast says "Goodbye, Seattle" in a memorable, two-part finale. You won't want to miss a minute of this acclaimed comedy's final season in this entertaining, laugh-provoking four-disc DVD collection. Paramount/CBS
