

New On Video & DVD

Dallas Season 12 Having avoided getting shot by his frustrated wife, Sue Ellen (Linda Gray), at the end of Dallas' 11th season, ruthless oil tycoon J.R. Ewing (Larry Hagman) decides to relax a bit as season 12 gets under way. Embarking on a hunting trip to Arkansas, serial philanderer J.R. has brief tryst with hillbilly gal Cally Harper (Cathy Podewell) which turns out to be a major mistake when Cally's brothers, in cahoots with a crooked sheriff, contrive to have J.R. arrested and sentenced to a work farm! In order to save himself, J.R. agrees to divorce Sue Ellen and marry Cally who isn't quite as vacuous and guileless as she looks. Once J.R. and Cally are hitched, the vengeful Sue Ellen purchases a movie studio for the express purpose of collaborating with screenwriter Don Lockwood (Ian McShane) on a shocking filmed exposé of J.R. and his highly questionable business practices. (This collaboration reaps unexpected benefits when Sue Ellen and Lockwood are married!) Season twelve marks the exit of two longtime Dallas regulars: Steve Kanaly and his character, J.R.'s half brother, Ray Krebbs, bid farewell early in the season; and by mid-year, Linda Gray (aka Sue Ellen) is also gone. Conversely, Audrey Landers as Afton Cooper, former sister-in-law of J.R.'s niece Lucy (Charlene Tilton), returns after an absence of several seasons. Newcomers to the cast include George Kennedy as rival oil man Carter McKay, who after purchasing Ray Krebbs' ranch takes over Westar Oil and mounts a range war (both literal and figurative) against the Ewing family, hoping not only to destroy J.R. but also to remove Bobby Ewing (Patrick Duffy) as head man of Ewing Oil. The McKay-Ewing conflict would spread far beyond the boundaries of Texas and extend into the wilds of Washington, D.C., Austria, and Russia! Along with Carter McKay, Carter's unhappy wife, Rose (Jeri Gaile), and his profoundly troubled children, Tommy (J. Eddie Peck) and Tracy (Beth Toussaint), make their first appearances this season.

Warner

Super Friends Season One Volume One Behold the Super Friends: Superman, Batman and Robin, Wonder Woman and Aquaman debut as an animated team in these first-season episodes of the Hanna-Barbera series. Mobilized by Troubadour, the superheroes avert disasters both cosmic and mundane. Yet they prevail over Dr. Rebus, Prof. Baffles and other zealous brainiacs as much through reason as with force. Trainees Wendy, Marvin and Wonder Dog aid in the effort, as do Flash and Green Arrow. Warner Ironman Armored Adventures Volume 2 This animated series follow the adventures of teenage whiz kid Tony Stark, who uses his high-tech Iron Man suit to learn the truth about his industrialist father's recent death and to take on the Mandarin, an enigmatic villain. With the help of sidekicks Rhodey and Pepper, Stark also confronts the nefarious Obadiah Stane, who has transformed Stark Industries into a manufacturer of devastating weapons. Vol. 2 contains episodes 7-12 from Season 1. Vivendi

Cloudy With a Chance of Meatballs Inspired by Ron and Judi Barrett's beloved children's book of the same name, Cloudy With a Chance of Meatballs follows inventor Flint Lockwood (voice of Bill Hader) and brainy weathergirl Sam Sparks (voice of Anna Faris) as they attempt to discover why the rain in their small town has stopped while food is falling in its place. Meanwhile, lifelong bully Brent (voice of Adam Sandler) relishes in tormenting Flint just as he did when they were kids, and Mayor Shelbourne (voice of Bruce Campbell) schemes to use Flint's latest invention a device designed to improve everyone's lives for his own personal gain. Mr. T. voices by-the-books cop Earl Devereaux, and James Caan voices Flint's technophobe father, Tim. Sony

The Moment After The Book of Revelation comes alive in this biblical thriller starring David White as FBI agent Adam Riley, a just-the-facts man who, along with his partner, Charles Baker (Kevin Downes), investigates the disappearance of a band of people whom authorities believe have made off with a mysterious leader (Brad Heller). Who is this leader, and why has he inspired such faith? What does he have to say? Sony

The Theory of Everything In this Christian drama, Doug Holloway (David de Vos) embarks on a quest to locate his birth father, Eugene Holland (Victor Lundin), a scientist seeking to prove God's existence - through physics. But Eugene is suffering a degenerative brain disorder that's compromising his mental faculties. In the process of reconnecting and working together to complete Eugene's mission before time runs out, father and son learn the importance of faith. Sony

All About Steve While Steve (Bradley Cooper) would have to disagree, socially inept Mary (Sandra Bullock) thinks he's her true love and shamelessly pursues him around the country, egged on by Steve's wingman, the sexist and mean Hartman (Thomas Haden Church). But the two men start feeling guilty for their callousness when they realize there's more to Mary than her outrageous boots and wacky statements. Phil Traill directs this comedic tale, which also stars Ken Jeong. Fox

Rise and Fall of the Berlin Wall This ingenious documentary casts an architectural perspective on the Berlin Wall, employing computer imagery to re-create its development from a rudimentary partition to a Dantean concrete blockade. Erected in 1961, the "Wall of Death" grew to encompass seven concentric rings outfitted with signal wires, trenches and traps. The human involvement and cost is conveyed via interviews with the wall's designers and those who attempted escape. A&E

Now on DVD

Naruto Shippuden 4 The epic adventures continue in these episodes from the hit anime series that follows the exploits of young ninja Naruto, who has just returned home from a years-long training mission with legendary warrior Jiraiya. As Naruto takes on his former master with the help of his old pal Sakura -- who's gained some impressive new powers herself -- members of the dreaded Akatsuki seek to capture Naruto's former rival, Gaara. Vol. 4 contains episodes 14-17. Viz/Warner

District 9 When aliens land on Earth, global business conglomerate Multi-National United forces them into rigid containment zones where they are compelled to labor, even as MNU commandeers their otherworldly technology for profit. As tensions build between human and non-human races, a rogue agent leads a resistance movement against MNU's ruthless consolidation of power. Neill Blomkamp directs this cinema verité-style sci-fi thriller. Sony

Taxi Final Season This sitcom followed the life of a group of cabbies in New York. The group, employees of the Sunshine Cab Company, was made up a motley crew including Bobby (Jeff Conaway), a frustrated actor, Tony (Tony Danza), a struggling boxer, Louie (Danny DeVito), the tyrannical dispatcher, and Reverend Jim (Christopher Lloyd), a spacey ex-hippie. The classic ensemble sitcom was hailed by critics and audiences alike after premiering on ABC Sept. 12, 1978. It's a vehicle with heart, as well as humor, and won three straight Emmys as Outstanding Comedy Series. Alex (Judd Hirsch), Louie (Danny DeVito), Jim (Christopher Lloyd), Tony (Tony Danza), Latka (Andy Kaufman), Bobby (Jeff Conaway) and the rest of the wacky gang from New York City's Sunshine Cab Company return with more laughs in the fifth and final season of the Emmy Award-winning comedy series. In this round, Elaine (Marilu Henner) falls for one of Latka's countrymen, Alex battles a gambling compulsion, and Simka (Carol Kane) faces deportation. Paramount/CBS

Jennifer's Body Sexy temptress Megan Fox is hotter than hell as Jennifer, a gorgeous, seductive cheerleader who takes evil to a whole new level after she's possessed by a sinister demon. Steamy action and gore galore ensue as the male student body succumbs to Jennifer's insatiable appetite for human flesh. Now it's up to her best friend (Amanda Seyfried) to stop Jennifer's reign of terror before it's too late! Fox

ER Season 12 Complex cases and even more complex personalities are the norm in the urban Chicago emergency room that serves as the heart of this long-running medical drama. In the 12th season, ER staffers Michael Gallant (Sharif Atkins) and Dr. Rasgotra (Parminder Nagra) decide to tie the knot; an infant chimpanzee comes into the ER for treatment; Dr. Kovac (Goran Visnjic) becomes chief of emergency medicine; and more. Warner

Secrets of the Dead Killer Flu This fascinating program explores the flu pandemic that swept across the globe in 1918 and killed some 40 million people, four times the number of casualties from the recently ended World War I. As contemporary virologists and epidemiologists continue their research in an effort to understand where this flu strain originated and what made it so lethal, experts predict we will face a comparable pandemic soon, possibly in the next decade PBS

The Presidents Based on the book To the Best of My Ability, this series profiles those who've held office as president of the United States across a 215-year span. Featuring presidential archives and commentary from leading scholars, the program chronicles the stories of the diverse group of past presidents who've governed America. From Jefferson's Louisiana Purchase to Reagan's Revolution, the trials and triumphs of those who've held office are highlighted. The acclaimed American Experience series presents The Presidents Collection comprised of 20th century presidential biographies profiling the lives and legacies of Theodore Roosevelt, Woodrow Wilson, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Harry S. Truman, John Kennedy, Lyndon B. Johnson, Richard Nixon, Jimmy Carter, Ronald Reagan, and George H.W. Bush. PBS

The War After tackling the truly American subjects of jazz and baseball, award-winning documentarian Ken Burns returns to our country's military history with The War. His acclaimed 1991 series, The Civil War, was devoted to the War Between the States, while this 2007 production pays the same amount of care and attention to World War II. Rather than keeping The War on the frontlines, Burns and his fellow director Lynn Novick also explore life on the homefront in four towns: Waterbury, Connecticut; Mobile, Alabama; Sacramento, California; and Luverne, Minnesota. Keith David, who also lent his baritone to Ken Burns' Jazz, narrates this documentary series, while actors such as Tom Hanks, Samuel L. Jackson, Josh Lucas, and Adam Arkin give readings of historical accounts of those who fought on the other side of the world, as well as those who were fighting in their own way back home. PBS

The Story of India The British historian Michael Wood takes viewers on a fascinating journey through India, recounting the nation's rich, storied past and delving into its modern political climate. One of the oldest civilizations on the planet, India has been colonized, embattled, and mythologized many times over, but continues to hold a powerful position on the world stage: its massive population (expected to outpace China's, in raw numbers) and nuclear arsenal make the diverse democracy a force that cannot be ignored. The Story of India offers a gorgeous look at the country's natural wonders, and an insightful glimpse into the hearts and minds of its citizenry. PBS

Marine 2 No one at the opening of a posh island resort including Marine sniper Joe Linwood (Ted DiBiase Jr.) and his PR executive wife, Robin (Lara Cox) suspects that terrorists are among them ... until mayhem breaks loose, leaving Robin and the resort's owner hostage. Now, Joe must use every deadly maneuver in his arsenal to save his wife, end the tense standstill and leave no hostage behind. Roel Reiné directs this action-packed sequel. Fox

Noble Things Jimmy Wayne Collins (Brett Moses, who also co-directs), a country star with a career gone bust, drifts home to Texas to nurse his dying father, Pete (Michael Parks). But it's the severed ties of his youthful past that he truly hopes to mend in this thoughtful drama. After locating his brother (Ryan Hurst) in prison and his old sweetheart (Dominique Swain) in a grocery aisle, Jimmy realizes there's more than one way to lead an honorable life. Monarch

The Civil War from PBS and filmmaker Ken Burns, the epic 11-part series on the Civil War, utilizing printed information from the period. Collector's set of the critically acclaimed Ken Burns' documentary miniseries and the highest rated PBS show in history. The Civil War is examined in exquisite detail as has never been done before using the words of citizens and slaves of the time. Turner video collection #5316 includes a "Making Of" documentary. The volumes are available individually. Refer to the individual titles for more complete information. Volume 1: "The Cause 1861" Volume 2: "A Very Bloody Affair 1862" Volume 3: "Forever Free 1862" Volume 4: "Simply Murder 1863" Volume 5: "Universe of Battle 1863" Volume 6: "Valley of the Shadow of Death 1864" Volume 7: "Most Hallowed Ground 1864" Volume 8: "War Is All Hell 1865" Volume 9: "Better Angels of Our Nature 1865" PBS.

The Jerry Lewis Show Collection Brimming with loads of slapstick silliness, this Jerry Lewis compilation showcases scenes from the comedian's late 1960s variety show in which he portrays an assortment of delightful characters such as a nutty professor, scoutmaster and hillbilly. Distinguished guest stars who accompany the legendary funnyman on screen include the Osmond Brothers, Flip Wilson, Don Rickles, Janet Leigh and Lynn Redgrave. Infinity