Act of Valor Go "down range" with real, active-duty Navy SEALs in Act Of Valor, the adrenaline-fueled action-adventure that inserts you into the heart of the battle, alongside America's best and bravest. When a covert mission to rescue a kidnapped CIA operative uncovers a chilling plot, elite, highly-trained U.S. SEAL teams speed to hotspots around the globe, racing against the clock to stop a deadly terrorist attack. Pulse-pounding combat sequences, cutting-edge battlefield technology and raw emotion fuel this unprecedented blend of real-world heroism and original filmmaking -- a thrilling tribute to the skills, courage and tenacity of the world's most revered warriors. Fox

Curb Your Enthusiasm Season 8 One of HBO's true signature series, Curb Your Enthusiasm premieres its long-awaited eighth season. Candid, unsparing and self-deprecating, Curb Your Enthusiasm is driven by the off-kilter comic vision of Larry David, co-creator and co-executive producer of another lauded comedy series, Seinfeld. David's HBO series blurs the lines between reality and fiction, as he and a cast of real and fictional characters are followed by a ubiquitous camera that chronicles the private, often banal world of a (relatively) public man. The series proves how seemingly trivial details of one's day-to-day life - a trip to the grocery store, a remark at a dinner party, a fender-bender - can precipitate a "Murphy's Law" chain of misfortune to hilarious effect. To keep the narrative spontaneous, Curb is shot without a script; cast members are given scene outlines and often improvise lines as they go. HBO

Maverick: First Season In Maverick: The Complete First Season, wisecracking ladies' man Bret Maverick (James Garner) and his more serious brother Bart (Jack Kelly) - two handsome bachelors on the loose in the Wild West - have more success at the game of poker than the game of love. Yet they keep trying their luck in one frontier outpost after another. For fans of classic TV Westerns such as Cheyenne, Bonanza and Gunsmoke. Warner

Accident Hong Kong mystery-thriller about an "accident choreographer" - called the Brain - a cold-blooded hitman who kills his victims by trapping them in well-crafted accidents. After a mission goes wrong, costing the life of one of his men, the Brain is convinced someone is plotting to terminate him and his team. He becomes increasingly paranoid, walking on the thin line between reality and delusion. Shout

Goon Not content with his job as a bouncer, Doug Glatt (Seann William Scott) dreams of a more rewarding job and gaining his parents' respect. When a chance encounter with an on-ice thug leads to a fistfight that Doug easily wins, the on-looking coach sees Doug's potential, in spite of his lack of any hockey playing ability. Joining the team and with the encouragement of his best friend (Jay Baruchel), Doug quickly becomes a rising star. Soon he'll have the opportunity to face-off against league thug Ross Rhea (Liev Schreiber), perhaps finally land a girlfriend and stick to a job he enjoys. Now all he needs to do is learn how to skate. Magnolia

Mother's Day After a bank robbery gone wrong, three brothers go home to hideout only to discover that their Mother (Rebecca De Mornay) lost their house in a foreclosure. The new owners and their party guests become the depraved brothers' unwitting hostages. Their sadistic Mother soon arrives and brilliantly takes control of the situation, ratcheting up the terror. As the hostages struggle desperately to survive the harrowing torture, they realize that there is nothing a Mother won't do to protect her children. Anchor Bay

Beyond How far would you go to find a missing child? And how much are you willing to believe - and trust - in the unknown in order to get there? Academy Award winner Jon Voight, Dermot Mulroney (The Grey) and Teri Polo (Little Fockers) star in this chilling thriller about a 7 year old girl kidnapped from her bedroom one wintry night in an Anchorage suburb. But when a close-to-retirement police detective (Voight) obsessed with child abductions begins his investigation, he'll clash with a mysterious radio psychic (Julian Morris of Pretty Little Liars and Cry Wolf) who claims to have visions of the missing girl. Now the trail is getting cold. Time is running out. And in the most disturbing twist of all, the ultimate clues may be coming from a place outside the law, past human reason and forever frighteningly Beyond. Anchor Bay

London Boulevard A South London gangster emerges from three years in prison and becomes a bodyguard for a famous actress, only to be sucked back into the shady underworld by a ruthless crime lord in this gritty crime drama starring Colin Farrell. Mitchel (Farrell) served his time in Pentonville Prison. Now that he's a free man, he's determined to keep it that way. His resolve not to fall back on his criminal past is weakened, however, when his longtime friend Billy (Ben Chaplin) offers him a place to stay in exchange for help with a quick and dirty job. But just as it seems like the past won't let Mitchel go, a promising new opportunity arises; high-profile actress Charlotte (Keira Knightley) is hiding out from the paparazzi in a Holland Park mansion, and she needs a man who can help keep them at bay. Little does Charlotte realize that Billy has set his sights on her classic cars and valuable art collection, and that Mitchel is the only thing preventing him from robbing her blind. But just as Mitchel and Charlotte fall in love and make plans to move to Los Angeles, notorious mob heavy Gant (Ray Winstone) presents the cunning ex-con with an offer he can't refuse: Gant wants Mitchel in his gang, and he won't take no for an answer. Before Mitchel can flee, Gant has got him under his thumb, revealing that Mitchel will die before he ever has a chance to take flight. Upon realizing that any refusal to follow Gant's orders will endanger not only himself, but his sister Briony (Anna Friel) and Charlotte as well, Mitchel prepares to strike back with a vengeance.

Consequences be damned, Mitchel will do whatever it takes to protect the ones he loves, and prove that no man owns him. Sony

Mama, I Want To Sing Talented but naïve, Amara Winter (multi-platinum selling artist Ciara) is a young gospel singer who dreams of pop stardom.
