Dolly Parton's Coat of Many Colors Experience the magic and warmth of the inspiring true story of living legend Dolly Parton's rags-to-rhinestones upbringing in Tennessee's Great Smoky Mountains. Meet the close-knit, hardworking Parton family as they struggle to overcome devastating loss and discover the healing powers of forgiveness, faith... and one very special coat. This colorful patchwork coat - so vividly described in the well-known song of the film's title - helped empower the Southern songbird whose voice has touched hearts around the globe. Poignant and uplifting, this family-friendly film stars singer-songwriter Jennifer Nettles (Sugarland) and Ricky Schroder (NYPD Blue, 24) as Dolly's parents, Gerald McRaney (Longmire, Deadwood) as her Grandpa Jake, and young Alyvia Alyn Lind as the courageous, outspoken 9-year-old Dolly.
