Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles The sinister Shredder has seized control of New York City's police and politicians, leaving his ruthless Foot Clan to spread chaos in the streets. With no prospects for salvation in sight, mutant crime-fighters Raphael, Leonardo, Donatello, and Michaelangelo leap into action. They put up a fierce fight, too, though in order to truly defeat Shredder, the heroes in a half shell will need the help of courageous reporter April O'Neil (Megan Fox) and her quick witted cameraman Vern Fenwick (Will Arnett) as well. With their help, Shredder's plan will quickly unravel, and this once-great city will rise again. Paramount

This Is Where I Leave You When their father passes away, four grown siblings, bruised and banged up by their respective adult lives, are forced to return to their childhood home and live under the same roof together for a week, along with their over-sharing mother and an assortment of spouses, exes and might-have-beens. Confronting their history and the frayed states of their relationships among the people who know and love them best, they ultimately reconnect in hysterical and emotionally affecting ways amid the chaos, humor, heartache and redemption that only families can provide driving us insane even as they remind us of our truest, and often best, selves. Gunsmoke Eleven Season Vol 1 Three-time Emmy Award nominee James Arness saddles up for all new adventure in Gunsmoke: The Eleventh Season - Volume One. In this four-disc, 16-episode collection, United States Marshal Matt Dillon and the good citizens of Dodge City breathe new life into the Old West. From train-robbing outlaws and claim jumpers to cattle rustlers and bounty hunters, disorder was the order of the day. But it was business as usual for the Marshal and his loyal crew, including Doc Adams (Emmy winner Milburn Stone), saloon keeper Miss Kitty (Emmy-nominated Amanda Blake) and steadfast deputy Festus Haggen (Ken Curtis). Together, they showed American audiences how the West was run, and how justice was served. Volume 2 sends legendary Marshal Matt Dillon (three-time Emmy Award nominee James Arness) on the hunt for a new crop of outlaws, including a ruthless gang of bank robbers, a notorious sharpshooter and a murderous musician. Fighting alongside this frontier gunslinger are medicine man Doc Adams (Emmy winner Milburn Stone), the Long Branch Saloon's Miss Kitty and loyal deputy Festus Haggen. When it comes to heroes, the best in the west all hail from Dodge City. On four discs featuring 16 shoot-from-the-hip episodes, this landmark western continues to stand tall and proud as one of television's best-loved and longest-running series. Paramount / CBS
