Southland Season One This hard-hitting drama follows the trials and triumphs of a group of dedicated Los Angeles cops, including tough veteran John Cooper (Michael Cudlitz), who begins this show's first season training rookie patrolman Ben Sherman (Benjamin McKenzie). Other characters sworn to serve and protect include Detectives Russell Clarke (Tom Everett Scott) and Lydia Adams (Regina King), single-mom patrol officer Chickie Brown (Arija Bareikis) and more. Warner Bros.

I Hope They Serve Beer In Hell Based on the best-selling book by Tucker Max, this comedy follows the gleefully boozy antics of the author played by Matt Czuchry whose outrageous behavior at a friend's bachelor party jeopardizes the impending nuptials. Now, Tucker must find a way to make amends to his pal and get himself reinvited to the wedding. Traci Lords, Jesse Bradford and Keri Lynn Pratt co-star in this ribald tale from director Bob Gosse. Fox

A Serious Man Larry Gopnik (Golden Globe nominee Michael Stuhlbarg) has hit a "rough patch," according to a colleague, and it would seem so: people are dropping dead all around him, his wife (Sari Lennick) wants a "get" and his whining kids (Aaron Wolff and Jessica McManus) only add to the heavy load. Larry is just looking for some help. Can a few rabbis guide him to life's answers? Richard Kind co-stars in Joel Coen and Ethan Coen's 1960s-set, dark Jewish-culture send-up. Sony

The Stepfather Mom's (Sela Ward) new boyfriend, David (Dylan Walsh), isn't quite right and Michael knows it. A series of mysterious events leads the teen to suspect that David might in fact be a dangerous serial killer known for preying on families. Now, all he needs to do is gather evidence before it's too late. Nelson McCormick directs this spine-tingling remake of the 1987 thriller based on the real-life story of killer John Emil List. Sony

WWII in HD The History Channel presents this epic documentary that chronicles the deeply personal stories of soldiers, sailors, journalists, nurses and others who served in the front lines of the European and Pacific theaters of World War II. Weaving hours of rare, pristinely restored color footage with diaries, interviews and other first-hand accounts, this series recounts the global sweep of the war as experienced by those who were there. A&E

Ice Road Truckers Season 3 The third season of this gripping reality show follows a group of daring truckers as they navigate their 18-wheelers along treacherous frozen waterways to deliver a year's worth of supplies to oil rigs on Alaska's remote North Slope. Hugh Rowland and other determined drivers push their semis and themselves to the limits of endurance as they confront surprise blizzards, ultracold temperatures and other deadly dangers. A&E

The Kennedy Assassination 24 Hours After Go behind the scenes of history and experience the significant moments that occurred in the 24 hour period after John F. Kennedy's assassination with this gripping documentary from the History Channel. Information from previously unreleased transcripts sheds light on some surprising details, including new facts about when JFK really died and the reality concerning the photo of Lyndon B. Johnson taking the oath of office on Air Force One. A&E

Speed Dating Depressed in the wake of a bad breakup, James Van Der Bexton (Hugh O'Conor) dives into the local speed-dating scene without much success. But when he turns his attentions to the lovely and mysterious Victoria (Olga Wehrly), danger and a surprise bout of amnesia ensue. The charming Irish comedy, which features a hip and eclectic soundtrack, also stars Emma Choy as a lovestruck nurse and Don Wycherley as a skeptical detective. MTI

Big Love: Third Season After a tumultuous year that saw the Hendrickson family exposed as polygamists -- and Roman (Harry Dean Stanton) exposed as the snitch Bill (Bill Paxton) and his trio of wives (Jeanne Tripplehorn, Chloë Sevigny and Ginnifer Goodwin) have regrouped for a third season of this Best Drama Emmy nominee. Roman has been arrested; his son (Matt Ross) has stepped in to fill his shoes; and Barb has joined the board of the family business. HBO
