Blended Adam Sandler and Drew Barrymore reunite with Wedding Singer director Frank Coraci for this Warner Bros. romantic comedy about a terrible blind date that segues into a nightmare family vacation. Lauren (Barrymore) and Jim (Sandler) are two single parents just looking for love. In the wake of a blind date that turns disastrous, both agree that they're better off single. Just when Lauren and Jim thought they would never see each other again, however, their two families end up at the same African safari resort for spring break. Could it possibly be that their relationship is so crazy it just might work?. Warner

Victim Tyson (Ashley Chin), an east Londoner in his 20s, looks after his sister by day, and robs luxury flats at night. But his sister's classroom encounters with an inspirational teacher (David Harewood) suggest that even very difficult lives can be turned around. Meanwhile, Tia (Ashley Madekwe), a girl from the other side of the tracks, enters Tyson's life and allows him to consider another way to survive. Well Go USA

Fed Up Narrated by Katie Couric, Fed Up blows the lid off everything we thought we knew about food and exercise, revealing a 30-year campaign by the food industry aided by the U.S. government to mislead and confuse the American public. Exposing the hidden truths contributing to one of the largest health epidemics in history, the film follows a group of families battling to lead healthier lives and reveals why the conventional wisdom of exercise and eat right is not ringing true for millions of people struggling with diabetes, childhood obesity and other serious conditions. Including captivating interviews with the country's leading experts, this vital information could change the way we eat forever. Starz/Anchor Bay

Star Trek The Compendium Director J.J. Abrams' global sensations Star Trek and Star Trek: Into Darkness set a course for the ultimate comprehensive home entertainment package in Star Trek: The Compendium, including the IMAX Version of Star Trek: Into Darkness. This four-disc set is packed with previously released bonus material and additional never-before-seen footage. Paramount

Friend 2 : The Legacy Korean film. Lee Joon Suk (Yoo Oh Seong) will soon be released from prison, convicted for ordering the murder of his former friend turned rival. The story revolves around Joon Suk's quest to regain his leadership of Busan's most powerful gang. While at times quite violent, "Friend 2" remains packed with poignant moments, particularly found in the pseudo father-son relationship between the lead characters, Lee Joon Suk and Choi Sung Hoon (Kim Woo Bin). This film, filled with regret and attempted redemption, delivers a solid multigenerational drama that audiences will greatly enjoy. CJ Entertainment

The Good Wife: Season 5 marks a new start for Alicia Florrick (Emmy and Golden Globe winner Julianna Margulies) as she and Cary (Matt Czuchry) join forces to launch their own law firm. As they sever ties with Lockhart/Gardner, tensions escalate and explode as the new rivals go into attack mode - battling each other both in and out of court. Alicia's relationship with Will (Josh Charles) seems irrevocably damaged as he contends with her professional and personal betrayal. Diane (Christine Baranski), who was poised for a judgeship, has her nomination revoked after firing Alicia and returns to the firm. Kalinda's (Emmy winner Archie Panjabi) relationships with Alicia and Cary are also tested, as she remains loyal to Lockhart/Gardner. Meanwhile, newly elected Governor Peter Florrick (Chris Noth) and his Chief of Staff Eli (Alan Cumming) face new corruption issues as the Ethics Commission investigates possible voter fraud during Peter's gubernatorial campaign. Alicia's new venture leads her to volatile showdowns, altering every major relationship she's cultivated. For the first time on DVD, this 6-disc, 22-episode set witnesses Alicia's complete transformation from a good wife to a legal powerhouse. Paramount

Hawaii Five-O Season 4 The Hawaii Five-O team faces some of their biggest challenges yet as they fight to keep paradise safe from the most dangerous criminals on the islands. This season, Steve McGarrett (Alex O'Loughlin) and Detective Danny "Danno" Williams (Scott Caan) pursue an expert hacker and are taken hostage by an escaped convict who convinces them of his innocence while the danger of Kono's (Grace Park) relationship with the son of a Yakuza boss escalates. Chin Ho (Daniel Dae Kim) is investigated by Internal Affairs about his ties to the head of a drug cartel, and Catherine (Michelle Borth) gains a spot on the team but must repay a debt of honor in Afghanistan. Joining the team this season is Captain Lou Grover (Chi McBride), who recently moved his family from Chicago to head the SWAT unit on the island. It's high-octane action that never lets up through 22 thrilling episodes that will keep you on the edge of your seat! Paramount/CBS

CSI - Season 14 Crime never stops, and neither do the brilliant minds of CSI: Crime Scene Investigation. In the fourteenth gripping season, the six-time Emmy Award winning drama dives into new depths. From serial slaughter and arson to mysterious disappearances and cannibal killings, lead investigator D.B. Russell (Emmy winner Ted Danson) uses science to shed light on the darkest crimes. With the help of blood-work expert Julie Finlay (Oscar nominee Elisabeth Shue) and veteran investigators Nick Stokes (George Eads), Sara Sidle (Jorja Fox) and Greg Sanders (Eric Szmanda), the evidence never slips through the cracks. Backed up by the forensics and detective work of the rest of the unit (including Paul Guilfoyle, Robert David Hall, Wallace Langham, Elisabeth Harnois, David Berman and Jon Wellner), the truth always triumphs. The 22 relentlessly thrilling episodes packed in this six-disc set features the special 300th episode with a special guest appearance by former team member Catherine Willows (Marg Helgenberger) and the first appearance of Special Agent Avery Ryan (Emmy winner Patricia Arquette) of the FBI's Cyber-Crimes Division. Paramount/CBS

Perry Mason Movie Collection Double Features Vol. 4,5,6. SCANDALOUS SCOUNDREL: When a reviled tabloid publisher is found dead in his pool, the female reporter he recently fired is the prime suspect. As Perry (Raymond Burr) and Della Street (Barbara Hale) try to get to the bottom of the case, Paul Drake Jr. (William Katt) gathers clues to help prove his friend's innocence. AVENGING ACE: A high-ranking Air Force officer is convicted of homicide when a woman working with the military ends up dead. The Colonel attempts to appeal his conviction, but the lone defense witness is murdered before taking the stand. Perry (Raymond Burr) begins to question the Colonel's guilt when it becomes clear someone is working to thwart the appeal process. LADY IN THE LAKE: When a tennis player is arrested for the murder of his heiress wife, Perry (Raymond Burr) suspects foul play and takes on the case to ensure justice is served. Seen with a past lover the night before the murder, the accused's motive seems clear when the police find him in possession of the victim's bloody scarf. When the tennis star is taken off the court and into the courtroom, Della (Barbara Hale) and Paul (William Katt) assist Perry as a man's innocence hangs in the balance. LETHAL LESSON: When one of Perry's (Raymond Burr) law students is discovered at the scene of a gruesome killing, Mason is reluctant to take the case, particularly as the victim is his friend's son. As it quickly becomes clear that Ken Malansky (William R. Moses) had a motive to kill, Perry must work through a tangled web of ex-lovers and jealous classmates. MUSICAL MURDER: It's the final curtain call for a cruel theater director who is found dead, and the prime suspect is the recently fired stage manager. Perry (Raymond Burr) is the only alibi for the suspect and the prosecution is hard at work to discredit him. Perry may know the manager is innocent, but now he must prove it. ALL STAR ASSASSIN: When the owner of a sports team is murdered, Perry (Raymond Burr) decides to assist former student Ken Malansky (William R. Moses) on one of his first cases. The case becomes clear when it turns out the owner didn't have many fans, and there are many who had interest in taking him out of the game. Paramount/CBS

Five Dances The classic tale of finding success and romance in the big city is given a contemporary, and unconventional, spin in Alan Brown's new film, Five Dances. Collaborating with internationally renowned choreographer Jonah Bokaer, writer-director Brown has taken five gifted New York dancers, and fashioned a story about Chip (Ryan Steele in his first film role), an extraordinarily talented 18 year-old recently arrived from Kansas who joins a small downtown modern dance company. In his first weeks of rehearsal, Chip is initiated into the rites of passage of a New York dancer's life, where discipline and endless hard work, camaraderie and competitiveness, the fear of not being good enough, and the joy of getting it just right, inform every minute of every day. Shooting in and around a Soho dance studio, Brown and his longtime cinematographer Derek McKane capture the exhilaration and emotional turmoil of a small dance company, and all of Chip's poignant firsts-the forging of friendships, being chosen for the important solo, his first ever love affair-with the intimacy and immediacy of a documentary.
