

New On Video & DVD

The Magnificent Seven Complete Series Seven men... one destiny. MGM Home Entertainment hits the trail with the thrilling adventures of seven courageous cowboys as they battle for justice and fight for the underdog when "The Magnificent Seven" Complete Series Giftset rides onto DVD May 13. John Sturges's hugely influential western The Magnificent Seven inspired a CBS TV spin-off in 1998. An impressive cast, which includes turns from Michael Biehn (Aliens), Ron Perlman (Hellboy), and Eric Close (Without A Trace), helps to bring the Old West to life as seven men join forces in an attempt to save an Indian village from Confederate troops. After saving the village the Seven face further problems as they settle in a small town and attempt to work together to protect its residents. This collection includes every episode from the, "The Magnificent Seven" series ran from 1998 to 2000 and introduced a new generation to the time-honored Western genre, earning an Emmy® for Best Costume Design. Relive the Old West with this five-disc set, including four never-before-seen episodes from the final season. MGM

The Rat Patrol - The Complete Series Rumbling back into action, "The Rat Patrol" Complete Series Giftset deploys onto DVD May 13, 2008 from MGM Home Entertainment. This seven-disc set includes all 58 adventure filled episodes of the action-packed dramatic series chronicling the adventures of four commandos fighting in the African Desert. Lead by bold Sergeant Sam Troy (Christopher George, Chisum, The Immortal), The Rat Patrol was comprised of a misfit team of men including Sergeant Jack Moffitt (Gary Raymond, Moonraker, The Greatest Story Ever Told), the intellectual British archeologist expert, Private Mark "Hitch" Hitchcock (Lawrence Casey, "Knots Landing") a demolition specialist and Private Tully Pettigrew (Justin Tarr, Massacare Harbor), the group's mechanical wizard. The four maneuvered tanks across the barren badlands of Africa during World War II to battle the German Army's Africa Corps, led by Hauptmann Hans Dietrich (Eric Braeden, "The Young and The Restless"). Inspired by and loosely modeled on the Long Range Desert Group, a British Army unit during World War II and The Rat Patrol was first war program to be broadcast in color. Filmed on location in the deserts of Spain, the series featured props and vehicles utilized in big budget World War II films, which gave the show a visual authenticity. MGM

Barney: Hi I'm Riff The preschool crowd will love this charming and educational video that teaches kids important life lessons through entertaining song-and-dance routines as purple dinosaur Barney makes a new friend named Riff, who's just moved into the neighborhood. Your youngsters will enjoy tagging along with the two lovable lizards as they get to know each other and start a club where the members are best pals. Hit Entertainment/Fox

Bob the Builder: The Three Musketrucks Packer the pickup, Scrambler the ATV and Dodger the milk truck get into all kinds of adventures in this collection of five "Bob the Builder" episodes, which includes a story in which the three hardworking vehicles band together to get the job done. In other exploits, Dodger helps dairy queen Meg make cheese, Scrambler comes to the aid of Packer when the pickup gets in a jam, and Scrambler heads up to Snowcap Mountain to retrieve a wayward goat. Hit Entertainment/Fox

Garfield and Friends A Cat And His Nerd Nerdy cat owner Jon gets himself into some pickles in this collection of fifteen mini-episodes. Never fear, though -- friend Garfield is always there to make sure Jon survives so he can keep supplying the feisty feline with large trays of lasagna. In these adventures, Garfield makes sure Jon stays grounded when he becomes a DJ, helps him break a bad habit, joins him in a hairball-raising skydive, takes on a conniving convict and much more. Episodes: "Wedding Bell Blues", "Jukebox Jon", "The Great Inventor", "Jumping Jon", "Supersonic Seymour", "Jon The Barbarian", "Jailbird Jon", "Rolling Romance", "Sit On It", "Model Behavior", "Garfield Goes Hawaiian", "The Black Book", "Twice Told Tale", "D.J. Jon", & "Dream Date". Fox

Care Bears Sharing in the Sunshine Those cuddly, colorful Care Bears come to the rescue when kids need their help in this four-episode collection. From stopping Professor Coldheart's latest scheme to helping two youngsters trapped in a cave, the Care Bears are there! And when a dad might miss his daughter's dance recital and a treasure hunt goes awry, the bears are happy to help. Episodes include "The Show Must Go On," "Concrete Rain," "The Girl Who Cried Wolf," and "Dry Spell." Episodes: "The Show Must Go On", "Concrete Rain", "The Girl Who Cried, Wolf" & "Dry Spell". Fox

Madeline Next Stop America French schoolgirl Madeline heads to America for a pair of exciting adventures that take her to Tinseltown and to New York City. In "Madeline in Hollywood," she's chosen to appear in a new film, but star Sugar Dimples doesn't like her. "Madeline in New York" finds the spunky redhead traveling to the Big Apple with her class to take in Gotham's world-famous sights and to watch the Bronx Bombers play ball. Fox

Care Bears Ups and Downs It's all about parties and making new friends in the two Care Bear episodes in this sunny set, which also includes a bonus game. In "Cheer Up," Cheer Bear throws a party for Surprise Bear, and in "Down to Earth," Funshine helps a lonely youngster. Funshine makes a special trip to Earth to give the boy some guidance, but it looks like he might not make it back to Care-a-Lot City when Wingnut's transporter goes on the fritz. Fox

Caring For Your Parents Following the experiences of five Rhode Island families, this affecting PBS documentary explores the changing nature of caring for aging parents, which includes the challenges of taking care of them at home and grappling with discord among siblings. Emphasizing the central importance of love and compassion, the program also features a helpful panel-discussion segment with Dr. Art Ulene as the moderator. WGBH Boston

Walk All Over Me A trouble-prone teen navigates a treacherous world of witless gangsters and latex fetish wear in director/screenwriter Robert Cuffley's quirky comic noir. When Alberta (Leelee Sobieski)'s boyfriend is assaulted by thugs, the frightened teen flees to Vancouver in hopes of hiding out at the house of her good friend Celine (Tricia Helfer) - an aspiring dominatrix and wannabe actress currently planning her big move to Los Angeles. While Celine knows that helping out her old friend Alberta can only mean trouble, her kind heart eventually overpowers her better judgment. Celine soon remembers just why she was so hesitant to help her old friend, however, when Alberta ruins her best SS uniform. Later, Alberta tries to procure Celine a new SS outfit by posing as Celine and meeting her new client Paul (Jacob Tierney), only to find their kinky session rudely interrupted by the gangsters that were pursuing Paul in search of the $500,000 he was accused of stealing. If bickering henchmen siblings Aaron (Michael Eklund) and Isaac (Michael Adamthwaite) could just stop arguing long enough to focus on the task at hand, perhaps they could finally track down the missing cash and avoid facing the wrath of their foreboding boss Rene (Lothaire Bluteau). Weinstein

Three Sheets: Season 2 Adventurous comedian Zane Lamprey returns for a second season of this popular travel series that has him sampling some of the planet's most potent local potables, including absinthe, moonshine and -- yes, it's true -- fermented duck eggs. In this installment of episodes, Lamprey sips sake with stressed-out Japanese businessmen, celebrates Oktoberfest in Munich and slings back snake blood in Taipei. Infinity

David Beckham: Life of an Icon Long before David Beckham came to Los Angeles to play for the Galaxy, he was an international sports superstar who had achieved a stardom rarely experienced by even the most skilled athletes in the world. Here is the story of his professional career in the game that made him a legend. Life Of An Icon includes highlights from some of Beckham's most celebrated achievements on the field as well as interviews with those who both love and hate him. It's a complete portrait of a man who is a genuine pop-culture icon, whether it was for his triumph over the competition or for having his image splashed over the covers of magazines. Liberation

The Truth About Cancer Using her husband's struggle with cancer as a case in point, filmmaker Linda Garmon explores the status of the fight against the devastating disease and looks at the lives of the medical professionals dedicated curing it. Interweaving personal testimony with science, this compelling documentary also includes a panel discussion with cancer experts led by broadcast journalist and cancer survivor Linda Ellerbee. WGBH Boston

123 Sesame Street Love the Earth Bear Scouts Elmo, Zoe and Baby Bear venture in to Bear National Park with Scout Leader Papa Bear in search of the Blue-Feathered Swallow so they can earn their Bird-Watching Badges. They don't have much luck finding the swallow, but they do learn some important lessons about littering, recycling, re-use and water conservation. Most importantly, they learn that we need to "Love The Earth". Genius

New On Video & DVD

24 - Season One Relive the entire first nail-biting season of one of the most electrifying and innovative television programs in recent history when "24" Season One returns with an all-new Special Edition DVD May 20th from Fox Home Entertainment. Winner of 17 Emmy Awards and two Golden Globes during the show's six season run to date, the brand-new seven-disc "24" Season One Special Edition DVD set includes all 24 one-hour episodes and is packed with over three hours of never-before-seen special features including a Season Seven trailer, over 25 deleted and extended scenes, two all-new behind-the-scenes featurettes and more. Additionally the set will be available in collectible metal tin packaging that features special introductory letters from both series co-creators on their inspiration and challenges working on this groundbreaking show. Premiering on television in November 2001, "24" set a new standard for prime time intensity, making use of its unique real-time element following characters throughout an entire day, and introduced audiences to Counter Terrorism Unit agent Jack Bauer (Kiefer Sutherland), a man who will stop at nothing to protect his colleagues, his family and his country. Season One of this precedent-setting television series began as Agent Bauer is informed of a threat against U.S. Senator and Presidential candidate David Palmer (Dennis Haysbert; "The Unit") on the day of the California Primary. As Bauer attempts to unravel the mystery and ensure the safety of Senator Palmer, new conspiracies begin to emerge that threaten CTU, the country and his family. With incredible supporting performances from Elisha Cuthbert (The Girl Next Door, Captivity), Carlos Bernard ("10.5: Apocalypse"), Leslie Hope (Dragonfly), Sarah Clarke (Happy Endings), Eric Balfour (The Texas Chainsaw Massacre), and Mia Kirshner ("The L Word") as well as cameos from Lou Diamond Phillips ("Numb3rs," Young Guns) and Dennis Hopper (Speed, Hoosiers), this will truly be a day that none of them will ever forget! The clock is ticking...Midnight. Jack Bauer, head of the CIA's Los Angeles Counter Terrorist Unit, is suddenly thrust into a chaotic and exhausting 24-hour marathon of death, deception and terror as he struggles to prevent the assassination of a presidential candidate, find the traitor within his own organization, and save his kidnapped wife and daughter. DVD Special Features: The "24" Season One Special Edition DVD will feature all 24 episodes presented in widescreen format with English and French Dolby Surround plus English and Spanish subtitles. DVD special features include the following content: Season One Introduction by Kiefer Sutherland, • All-new documentary The Genesis of 24 • Five extended episodes • 7:00pm - 8:00pm, 8:00pm - 9:00pm, 9:00pm - 10:00pm, 10:00pm - 11:00pm, 11:00pm - 12:00am, 25 extended / deleted scenes Never-before-seen alternate season finale ending #2 Commentary on the series premiere episode (12:00AM-1:00AM) by director Stephen Hopkins and Director of Photography Peter Levy Commentary on the series finale episode (11:00PM-12:00AM) by director Stephen Hopkins and actress Leslie Hope • The Rookie online short films (sponsored by Degree) • "Coffee Run", "Get This To..." • Alternate season finale ending (with optional commentary by executive producer Joel Surnow) Seven-Disc DVD Set Featuring Special Collectible Packaging Clocks In May 20th With Over Three Hours Of Never-Before-Seen Bonus Features Including All-New Making Of Documentary, Extended Episodes, Deleted Scenes, Alternate Season Finale Ending, Commentaries & More. Fox

Park During one fateful lunch hour, the lives of a dozen Los Angelenos overlap in this funny first feature by writer-director Kurt Voelker. Trysts, nudity, dog grooming and poorly planned suicide attempts are only part of the fun. Featuring a juicy ensemble cast including William Baldwin and Ricki Lake, this indie won audience awards at the CineVegas International Film Festival and the Sonoma Valley Film Festival. Monarch

Nova Ape Genius What separates the human intellect from that of the ape? After you've written your own punch line to that provocative question, have a look at this incredible program from "Nova" and National Geographic. Offering a serious study of animal intelligence, this program reveals that chimps, bonobos, orangutans, and gorillas continue to surprise researchers with mental capabilities that blur the dividing line between man and his closest ancestors. WGBH Boston

Operation Homecoming Stories from the Heart Originally airing on the Learning Channel, this powerfully moving and heartfelt miniseries relays the emotional true stories of several men and women who have bravely served their country in Iraq and are about to return home to be reunited with friends and family. TLC/Genius

The Take Criminals learn that they may have messed with the wrong man in this thriller starring John Leguizamo, Tyrese Gibson, and Bobby Cannavale. Leguizamo (Empire) plays Felix De La Pena, a man just trying to survive in East L.A. when he is carjacked by a violent criminal (Gibson, Four Brothers). Soon Felix learns that his experience wasn't an isolated incident, and he begins to search for the men behind the scheme before he becomes a suspect for their crimes. Rosie Perez (Do The Right Thing) costars as Felix's wife. Sony

Grace Is Gone Though 2007 saw a flood of Iraq-related films, Grace Is Gone takes a different approach from many of the others. Unlike Redacted and Lions For Lambs, this directorial debut from screenwriter James C. Strouse (Loneome Jim) doesn't focus on the conflict itself. Instead, the drama looks at how the death of a female soldier affects her family at home. John Cusack (1408) is Stanley Phillips, a husband and father who waits while his wife Grace is off serving in Iraq. When he learns of her death, he can't bear to tell his two daughters the news. To postpone the inevitable, the normally staid father proposes a spontaneous road trip to his girls, and the three set off for the fun of an amusement park called Enchanted Gardens. Genius

The Four-Winged Dinosaur Sporting wings on its legs as well as its arms, the prehistoric creature known as the Microraptor is the focus of this fascinating documentary from the "Nova" series. With fossilized skeletons first discovered in China, the world's smallest adult dinosaur discovered to date is an object of curiosity and speculation amongst scientists eager to conduct experiments probing the origins of winged flight. Nova/WGBH Boston

Valentina's Tango Valentina's (Guillermina Quiriga) precarious mental state hangs in the balance as this film about love and obsession unfolds. The unfortunate Valentina finds some relief by dancing the tango, but her delusional mindset threatens to engulf her as she becomes dangerously fixated on her husband. MTI

Cassandra's Dream When two brothers turn to crime to solve their money troubles, they soon find themselves over their heads and pitted against each other in this thriller from Oscar-winning writer-director Woody Allen. Meanwhile, one brother (Ewan McGregor) becomes smitten with a beautiful young actress (Hayley Atwell), while his sibling (Colin Farrell) struggles with mounting gambling debts. Tom Wilkinson and Sally Hawkins co-star. Genius

Dark Heart An Iraq War vet (Greg Joelson) returns home from a traumatic tour of duty only to discover he has an even more dangerous battle awaiting him. This time, the battlefield presents not only threats to his body but also to his soul, which reawakens in torment over the course of one terrifying night. R.D. Call, Alicia Fusting co-star in this stark independent drama. MTI

The Planet After their ship is critically damaged in a surprise attack, a band of mercenaries crash-lands on an inhospitable planet. As they try to regroup, they come under attack from an unknown force that grows stronger with each victim it takes. Now, if the group can't find a way to defeat this powerful foe, the very universe may be doomed. Mike Mitchell, Patrick Wight and Scott Irnside star in this sci-fi offering from Scotland. MTI

The Dukes of Hazzard: TV Double Feature What's more fun than 10 in the tank and four on the floor? Tom Wopat, John Schneider, Catherine Bach and more of your Dukes of Hazzard favorites together again! In Reunion!, folks come home to Hazzard and discover a plot to turn Hazzard Swamp into a theme park...leaving the swamp critters high and dry. Before you can say wait a darn minute, the cousins are back in the General Lee, tearing up the roads to stop the nefarious scheme. Then they head west for Hazzard in Hollywood and a big-time recording deal. It turns out the deal includes a Russian mobster, a sultry songstress from the 'hood, and a beautiful blonde vice'mayor with the hots for Enos. Double the Dukes - double the down home fun! Warner

New On Video & DVD

Meet The Spartans Writers/producers/directors Jason Friedberg and Aaron Seltzer (Date Movie, Epic Movie) use the film 300 as the basis for their latest spoof. Born to be the perfect Spartan, Leonidas (Sean Maguire) faces numerous trials en route to becoming a man, including a face-off with the penguin from Happy Feet. Once he has proven himself, Leonidas not only becomes king, but also marries superhot Margot (Carmen Electra). When Leonidas learns that Persia's King Xerxes (Ken Davitian, Borat) plans to make Sparta his own, he has his captain (Kevin Sorbo, Hercules) recruit Sparta's finest and prepare them for battle against invading Persian forces. Unfortunately, that amounts to only 13 half-naked men with painted-on abs who literally prance to their destination. To make matters worse, Spartan councilman Traitore (Diedrich Bader) is, well, a traitor. Still, Leonidas and his men face their enemy in battle, riffing on Stomp The Yard, Ghost Rider, Transformers, and numerous other films along the way, as well as the video game Grand Theft Auto. Freidberg and Seltzer poke fun at virtually every recent cultural phenomenon and pop culture personality, including Britney Spears, Kevin Federline, Paris Hilton, Dancing With The Stars, American Idol, and Deal Or No Deal. Even Ugly Betty makes an appearance. Be prepared for an abundance of gross-out humor, spurts of bodily fluids, some sexual innuendo, and multiple jokes about homosexuality. Stick around after the musical finale as the credits start to roll: the deleted scenes prove to be some of the most amusing in the film. Fox

The Onion Movie The Onion--that gold standard of pitch-perfect news parody publications--brings its distinctly absurd-yet-relevant brand of satire to a hitherto untapped medium: the feature film! When the Onion News Network asks lead anchorman Norm Archer (Lou Cario) to compromise his journalistic integrity in the name of pleasing a new corporate sponsor, Archer doesn't respond too kindly. Armed with an irreverent sketch comedy-style approach to a loose narrative, The Onion Movie takes aim at everything politics and society have to offer. Watch Steven Seagal (as himself) punch people where the sun doesn't shine; see an armed man apply for a job at a bank; play "Who Is the Rapist?"; and more. Daniel Dae Kim, Bo Barrett, Nick Chinlund, Joel McHale star. Fox

Chips 2nd Season Jon Baker (Larry Wilcox) and Frank "Ponch" Poncherello (Erik Estrada) were two Los Angeles-based Highway Patrol officers who rode into the imaginations of millions of TV viewers in the late 1970s and early 1980s. Each episode saw the boys straddling their magnificent machines and riding off to solve some crimes--and the sight of Ponch and Baker riding through California on their bikes has become an iconic image in television history. Equal parts comedy and crime drama, the series offered plenty of outrageous moments and spectacular freeway stunts. This collection presents the complete second season. Disc 1 includes the following episodes: "Peaks and Valleys," "The Volunteers," "Family Crisis," "Disaster Squad," "Neighborhood Watch," "Trick or Trick," "High Flyer" and "The Grudge." Additional Actors: Pamela Norman, Paul Mace, Melody Queen-Engle, Peter Looney, Todd Everett, James Crittenden, Lee Paul, Steve Brodie, Danny Bonaduce, Shell Kepler, Gene Dynarski, Cliff Osmond, Marvin Kaplan, Harvey Jason, Gabriel Melgar, Charlie Brill, Samantha Caulfield, John Dennis, Justin Dana, Bobby Van, Jenny Sherman, Ty Henderson, Jenilee Harrison, David Roy, Dennis Kort, Damon Douglas. Disc 2 includes the following episodes: "The Sheik," "Return of the Turks," "Supercycle," "High Explosive," "Down Time," "Repo Man" and "MAIT Team." Additional Actors: Anita Jodelsohn, Dick Valentine, Colette Bertrand, Tara Talboy, Dee Wallace, John Wheeler, Jason Evers, Karen Carlson, George O'Hanlon Jr., Jonathan Goldsmith, Robert Yuro, Ken Kercheval, Cynthia Brian, Burr DeBenning, Susan Kiger, Mills Watson, Anna Berger, Wonderful Smith, Ingrid Wang, Eric Braeden. Disc 3 includes the following episodes: "Pressure Point," "The Matchmakers," "Rally 'Round the Bank," "Bio-Rhythms," "Quarantine," "CHP BMX" and "Ride the Whirlwind." Additional Actors: David Wiley, Rudy Vallee, Guy Stockwell, Mary Crosby, Danny Wells, Jenny O'Hara, Tiger Joe Marsh, Gloria Delaney, Michael Baseleon, Georgia Schmidt, Bruce Kimball, Carey Wong, Taaffe O'Connell, Jody St. Michael, Henry Olek, Kirk Calloway, Marc Gilpin, Maray Ayres, Eric Lawson, Kitty Hilton. Disc 4 includes the following episodes: "The Greatest Adventures of CHiPs" and all other enhanced content. Additional Actors: Robbie Rist. Warner

Mannix Season One Intertect is one of the most high-tech detective agencies in the business, specializing in using computers to solve its clients' most baffling mysteries. But one of the company's detectives, Joe Mannix (Mike Connors), likes to do things the old fashioned way: with a little boot leather and a punch to the gut. He may butt heads with his straightlaced supervisor, Lew Wickershaw (Joseph Campanella), and scoff at the precious computer's results, but Mannix's unorthodox methods pay dividends--he always gets his man. Developed by Bruce Geller, creator of Mission: Impossible, the long-running show was known for its over-the-top fistfights, inventive title sequence, and swinging theme song. This collection presents all 24 episodes of the series' debut season. Disc 1 includes the following episodes: "The Name is Mannix (Pilot)," "Skid Marks on a Dry Run," "Nothing Ever Works Twice," "The Many Deaths of Saint Christopher" and "Mike Connors & Joseph Campanella Interview: Part 1." Disc 2 includes the following episodes: "Make It Like it Never Happened," "The Cost of a Vacation," "Warning: Live Blueberries," "Beyond the Shadow of a Dream" and "Mike Connors & Joseph Campanella Interview: Part 2." Disc 3 includes the following episodes: "Huntdown," "Coffin for a Clown," "A Catalogue of Sins," "Turn Every Stone" and "CBS Fall Promo: 1967." Disc 4 includes the following episodes: "Run, Sheep, Run," "Then the Drink Takes the Man," "Falling Star," "License to Kill: Limit Three People" and "Mike Connors on The Mike Douglas Show." Disc 5 includes the following episodes: "Deadfall: Part 1," "Deadfall: Part 2," "You Can Get Killed Out There," "Another Final Exit," "TV Land Promo" and "Sales Promotion." Disc 6 includes the following episodes: "Eight to Five, It's a Miracle," "Delayed Action," "To Kill A Writer," "The Girl in the Frame" and "Diagnosis Murder Clip." CBS/Paramount

Semi-Pro Will Ferrell has perfected a type of swaggering, machismo-fueled character, heavy on ego and severely lacking in intellect of any kind. Typically set in the world of sports, these movies have allowed Ferrell free range to both mock and celebrate idiot masculinity. Semi-Pro, Ferrell's homage to the wild, afro-picked splendor of the short-lived American Basketball Association, continues this trend, and finds him embodying yet another larger-than-life hunk a burnin' love in the form of Jackie Moon, R&B singer-turned-owner/player/coach of the hapless Flint, Michigan Tropics. As sports movies go, Semi-Pro's story should be more than familiar to even the most casual fan. The Tropics are a lackluster franchise that place good times and flash over winning. However, when the league announces that they will be merging with the NBA and only taking the top four teams along, the Tropics buckle down and give true ballin' a shot. Semi-Pro follows the comedic formula of other Ferrell movies and contains an equal amount of satire (tame-but-effective '70s goofs), slapstick (on-court brawls, zany stunts), and surreal non-sequiturs (an improvised poker game provides one of the film's most deliciously bizarre scenes), but it's not exactly interchangeable with Ferrell's other movies. Though the actor cuts loose as Jackie Moon, the film is decidedly an ensemble picture, with Woody Harrelson providing the movie's true protagonist, in washed up former NBA player Monix, and Andre Benjamin offering a charming turn as flashy NBA wannabe Clarence "Coffee" Black. Perhaps most interestingly, however, is Semi-Pro's surprising attention to detail, though the Flint Tropics are a fictional team, the real ABA was every bit as wacky, unhinged, and, yes, entertaining as Semi-Pro itself. Warner

Kenny the Shark Catch A Wave In this volume of the Discovery Kids' toon series, suburban shark Kenny teaches Kat how to hang 10 and accompanies the family on a wacky vacation. Later, Kenny and Kat are ready for their close-ups as they film their first home movie, Kat helps Kenny discover his unique talent, and Kenny decides to join the carnival. Also included is the bonus episode "Growing Up Creepie, Creep of the Deep." Genius

The List In the aftermath of his father's death, a recent law school grad learns that his dad left the bulk of his estate to a mysterious organization known as the Covenant List of South Carolina, Ltd. Determined to get some answers, he begins investigating the outfit--discovering a beautiful stranger and supernatural activity there. Malcolm McDowell, Chuck Carrington and Hilarie Burton star in this religious-themed thriller. Fox

New On Video & DVD

Marvel Heroes Collection: For fans who fall on Marvel's side of the great DC/Marvel debate--or even those who just enjoy a solid action flick--this set features the biggest and best in superhero movies and TV. Marvel Superheroes Collection includes X-MEN, X-MEN 2, X-MEN 3: THE LAST STAND (Stan Lee Collector's Edition), Fantastic Four, Fantastic Four 2: Rise Of The Silver Surfer, Fantastic Four: World's Greatest Heroes Volume 1, Daredevil, and Elektra. Daredevil Ben Affleck is Matt Murdock, a Marvel Comics hero who's a lawyer by day but fights the bad guys at night to avenge the murder of his father, a boxer. But what sets Matt apart from most superheroes isn't his back story; it's his handicap. Matt is blind, the result of a childhood accident that may have removed his ability to see but gifted him with heightened senses of touch, taste, hearing and smell. Michael Clarke Duncan plays Kingpin., Fantastic Four During a space voyage, four scientists are altered by cosmic rays: Reed Richards (Ioan Gruffudd) gains the ability to stretch his body; Sue Storm (Jessica Alba) can become invisible and create force fields; Johnny Storm (Chris Evans) controls fire; and Ben Grimm (Michael Chiklis) is turned into a super-strong ... thing! Together, these "Fantastic Four" must thwart the evil plans of Dr. Doom (Julian MacMahon)., Fantastic 4 Silver Surfer This sequel to the 2005 blockbuster follows Fantastic Four superheroes Reed (Ioan Gruffudd), Sue (Jessica Alba), Johnny (Chris Evans) and Ben (Michael Chiklis) as they battle the enigmatic Silver Surfer (Doug Jones), who travels the earth preparing it for total destruction. Director Tim Story's comic book adventure introduces viewers to the space-faring explorer Silver Surfer, created in 1966 by legendary Marvel writers Stan Lee and Jack Kirby., Elektra In this spellbinding thriller, Jennifer Garner reprises the role of fearless warrior Elektra -- a character she originated in Daredevil. Now that she's back in the fold of the mysterious Order of the Hand, the group's leader, Kirigi (Will Yun Lee), tasks her with liquidating seemingly harmless widower Mark Miller (Goran Visnjic) and his teenage daughter. But all bets are off when Elektra falls for Miller and must battle her former allies., X-Men They are genetically gifted mutants -- the world's newest, most persecuted minority group. Amidst increasing fear and bigotry, Professor Charles Xavier (Patrick Stewart) provides a safe haven for powerful outcasts like Wolverine (Hugh Jackman), Rogue (Anna Paquin) and Storm (Halle Berry). But can the X-Men triumph over Magneto (Ian McKellen) and his band of evil mutants? Catch this explosive battle for freedom and honor!, X2 X-Men 2 United In X2, the sequel to the Marvel Comics-based hit X-Men, the group of humans who have mutated into superheroes band together to find out who's behind the rising tide of anti-mutant sentiment. Storm (Halle Berry), Wolverine (Hugh Jackman), Professor Xavier (Patrick Stewart), Magneto (Ian McKellen), Cyclops (James Marsden), Mystique (Rebecca Romijn-Stamos) and Jean Grey (Famke Janssen) are back to battle the bad guys -- hopefully for the last time.,X-Men 3 The Last Stand When scientists develop a miracle drug to treat unwanted mutations, Professor Charles Xavier (Patrick Stewart) and his heroic band of X-Men must battle a group of mutants known as the Brotherhood, led by Xavier's former ally (Ian McKellen). Hugh Jackman, Halle Berry, Famke Janssen, Anna Paquin, Rebecca Romijn and James Marsden reprise their roles from the first two films, with the addition of new recruits Kelsey Grammer and Ben Foster. Fantastic Four: World's Greatest Heroes Volume 1 Marvel Comics' favorite family, the Fantastic Four, battles Dr. Doom and other baddies in this first volume of episodes from the Cartoon Network series, which features a cool mix of 2D and 3D animation. Mr. Fantastic leads the Invisible Woman, the Human Torch and the Thing in four fantastic adventures. The quartet of episodes consists of "Doomed," "Hard Knocks," "World's Tiniest Heroes" and "De-Mole-Ition." Fox

Mad Money Diane Keaton, Katie Holmes, and Queen Latifah headline director Callie Khouri's second feature film. Nina (Latifah) and Jackie (Holmes) are two of many employees with mundane jobs at the high-security Kansas City Federal Reserve Bank. Their lives change forever when career mom Bridget (Diane Keaton) takes a job there as a cleaning woman after learning that she and her downsized husband, Don (Ted Danson), are hundreds of thousands of dollars in debt. Being surrounded by stacks and stacks of money is too much for Bridget to bear, and she corrals Nina and Jackie into taking the biggest risk of their lives: sneaking out of the bank money that is removed from circulation and about to be shredded.

Amazingly, their scheme works, and soon the three are fast friends and the cash is piling up. But will they ever have enough "mad money," or will greed be their downfall? The fun here is in how three average women pull off a remarkably low-tech scam in the midst of super-high security levels, hidden cameras, and constant monitoring. Keaton, Latifah, and Holmes make a nice team, playing very different women with very different needs. Keaton's Bridget is trying to maintain her family's comfortable, upper-middle-class lifestyle when her husband no longer can. Meanwhile, the sole concern of Latifah's single mom, Nina, is keeping her sons out of trouble despite their surroundings. And Holmes's Jackie is a one-of-a-kind free spirit, dancing to the beat of her own drummer. Danson has some of the film's best lines as he tries to put his wife's actions into perspective. Anchor Bay

ESPN Ringside Rivalries ESPN revisits boxing's blockbuster bouts in this knockout documentary that features Muhammad Ali vs. Joe Frazier in the Thrilla in Manila, Sugar Ray Robinson vs. Jake Lamotta in the St. Valentine's Day Massacre and more full-length matches. Other bouts include Joe Louis vs. Max Schmeling, Evander Holyfield vs. Riddick Bowe, Jack Dempsey vs. Gene Tunney and more. Revealing interviews provide fascinating insight into these legendary competitors. Warner

P.S. I Love You Hilary Swank tries her hand at romantic comedy in this touching film based on the best-selling Irish novel. Holly Kennedy (Swank) and her charming Irish husband Gerry (Gerard Butler) are a young couple struggling to get by in New York City. Their marriage is 10 years strong, and they are madly in love, but the fates soon step in, when Gerry develops cancer and dies. Holly is completely devastated, and her friends Denise (Lisa Kudrow) and Sharon (Gina Gershon) do their best to console her. Her mother (Kathy Bates) and sister, Rose (Nellie McKay), also offer their support, but it seems nothing can pull Holly out of her grief. Then one day, she begins to receive love letters Gerry penned before his death. The letters are filled with various stories and instructions, and one of them even contains a plan that sends her and her friends on a trip to Ireland. As Gerry's posthumous letters buoy her up, Holly slowly begins to piece her life back together. His letters help her to celebrate their special love story, and remind her that she must continue to live her life, and seek out happiness. The film's stellar cast delivers many tearjerker moments, and P.S. I Love You does a fine job of yanking on the heartstrings. Warner

One Missed Call Originally made by cult director Takashi Miike in 2003 from Yasushi Akimoto's novel Chakushin Ari, this American version retains the elements that are sure to please J-Horror fans--jerky apparitions, ghostly children, desperate messages from beyond the grave, possessed electronic devices, and strong female characters. While this remake, which is the debut English-language film from French director Eric Valette, dispenses with some of the freakiness of Miike's version, the creepiness remains. Shannon Sossamon is Beth, a developmental psychology student who has plenty of cause for concern after her friend Leann (Azura Skye) receives a panicked cell phone message from herself days in the future. After Leann falls in front of a train at the same date and time on the message, Beth suspects that she may be next. Beth's fear seems even more justified after her friend Taylor (Ana Claudia Talancon) befalls a similar fate as her phone message is being investigated by a reality TV host (Ray Wise) who specializes in unexplained phenomena. With the help of police chief Jack Andrews (Ed Byrnes), Beth discovers a link between the calls and a deceased mother and daughter. A slow burning ghost tale, One Missed Call establishes a mood of creepiness before the opening credits and sustains it right through to the conclusion. Instead of major shocks or gore, we're given subtle glimpses of ghostly figures or slightly distorted faces that are effective in creating unease. Sossamon makes a pleasing heroine, and the always excellent Wise makes the most of his small role. Almost old-fashioned in its restraint, the film is a good candidate for family viewing--and spooky enough to give all but the most jaded horror fan goose bumps. Warner

Serial Mom Happy homemaker Beverly Sutphin (Kathleen Turner) has a charmed life--a beautiful suburban home, a successful dentist husband (Sam Waterston), and two normal teenagers, Misty (Ricki Lake) and Chip (Matthew Lillard). But she also has a good deal of underlying rage waiting to escape....Just be sure to follow her rules: Be polite to your neighbor, always recycle, rewind your videotapes, and never, ever wear white shoes after Labor Day. When one of her son's teachers speaks disparagingly of the boy at a parent-teacher conference, Bev runs the instructor over in the school parking lot. Suddenly she has an insatiable taste for murder. Six homicides later, the cops get wise to her crimes, which are committed with weapons ranging from a leg of lamb to a fireplace poker. A media frenzy ensues, turning an unrepentant Beverly into a media celebrity. A serial-killer comedy mixed with courtroom-drama social satire. Universal

New On Video & DVD

The Fugitive Season Two - Volume One This classic 1960s television series features David Janssen as Dr. Richard Kimble, a man falsely convicted of murdering his wife. While he's being transported to death row, his train derails, setting him loose and granting him the opportunity to clear his name. As Kimble scours the country for his wife's murderer--the famed "one-armed man"--he must also keep one step ahead of the law--i.e., Lt. Gerard (Barry Morse), who is pursuing him. A groundbreaking series with an engaging storyline and excellent direction, The Fugitive's finale was the highest-rated television episode of its time. The hunt is on in this first batch of episodes from the series' second season. Includes the following episodes: "Man In A Chariot," "World's End," "Man On A String" and "When The Bough Breaks." Additional Actors: Kathleen Maguire, Robert Drivas, Ed Begley, Gene Lyons, Paul Birch, Jess Kirkpatrick, Lois Nettleton, John Larch, Jud Taylor, Diana Hyland. Disc 2 includes the following episodes: "Nemesis," "Tiger Left, Tiger Right," "Tug of War" and "Dark Corner." Additional Actors: Kurt Russell, Leslie Nielsen, Bing Russell, Paul Birch, Carol Rossen, Crahan Denton, John McLiam, James Seay. Disc 3 includes the following episodes: "Escape Into Black," "The Cage," "Cry Uncle" and "Detour On A Road Going Nowhere." Additional Actors: Bill Raisch, Paul Birch, Betty Garrett, Ivan Dixon, Rodolfo Hoyos Jr., Edward Binns, Brett Somers, Steve Ihnat. Disc 4 includes the following episodes: "The Iron Maiden," "Devil's Carnival" and "Ballad For a Ghost." Additional Actors: Richard Anderson, Jason Wingreen, Nan Martin, Stephen McNally, Warren Oates, Janis Paige, Paul Fix, Noam Pitlik, Hugh Sanders. Paramount/CBS

Hawaii Five-O - Fourth Season One of TV's longest-running crime dramas (only Law & Order would surpass its record-setting 12-year run), the 1970s television series Hawaii Five-O captivated audiences with its smart and stylish take on the standard policier formula. Filmed entirely on the Hawaiian Islands, the action-packed series followed the crime-fighting adventures of an elite state-police squad anchored by quintessential tough guy Steve McGarrett (Jack Lord) and his detective team of Danny "Danno" Williams (James MacArthur), Chin Ho Kelly (Kam Fong), and Kono Kalakaua (Zulu). Almost single-handedly rewriting the book on police dramas, the series distinguished itself with intricate plotting, inventive cinematography, exotic locations, and, of course, an indelible theme song and timeless catchphrase ("Book 'em, Danno!"). In the fourth season McGarrett and his team search for a serial killer who puts makeup on his victims; track a well-organized gang cashing fraudulent traveler's checks; and hunt down a disgruntled ex-cop plotting to assassinate the governor. Disc 1 includes the following episodes: "Highest Castle, Deepest Grave," "No Bottles, No Cans, No People," "Wednesday, Ladies Free" and "3,000 Crooked Miles to Honolulu." Additional Actors: Harry Endo, Kwan Hi Lim, Peggy Ryan, Yankee Chang, Glenn Cannon. Disc 2 includes the following episodes: "Two Doves And Mr. Heron," "And I Want Some Candy, And A Gun That Shoots," "Air Cargo: Dial for Murder" and "For A Million, Why Not?" Additional Actors: John Ritter, Peggy Ryan, Brooks Almy, Herman Wedemeyer, Harry Endo, Al Harrington. Disc 3 includes the following episodes: "The Burning Ice," "Rest in Peace, Somebody," "A Matter of Mutual Concern" and "Nine, Ten, You're Dead." Additional Actors: Peggy Ryan, Richard Denning, Yankee Chang, David Opatoshu, Seth Sakai. Disc 4 includes the following episodes: "Is This Any Way To Run A Paradise," "Odd Man In," "Bait Once, Bait Twice" and "The 90-Second War: Part 1." Additional Actors: Peggy Ryan, Harry Endo, Mitch Mitchell, Moe Keale, Jiro Tamiya. Disc 5 includes the following episodes: "The 90-Second War: Part 2," "Skinhead," "While You're At It" and "Cloth of Gold." Additional Actors: Richard Denning, Khigh Dhiegh, Peggy Ryan, Harry Endo, Milton Selzer. Disc 6 includes the following episodes: "Good Night Baby, Time To Die," "Didn't We Meet At A Murder?," "Follow The White Brick Road" and "R&R&R." Additional Actors: Beth Brickell, William Watson, Peggy Ryan, Harry Endo, Bill Edwards, Alan Vint, James Davidson. Paramount/CBS

The Invaders Season One An alien invasion is one thing, but in this 1960s series the extraterrestrials are already among us! When architect David Vincent (Roy Thinnes) returns home from a business trip in the predawn hours, he spots the landing of a spacecraft containing visitors from another planet. Vincent learns that these beings are able to disguise themselves as humans. Now he must bring this unpleasant knowledge to the rest of humankind. And it will not be easy... This collection presents the first season of the sci-fi series. Disc 1 includes the following episodes: "Beachhead," "The Experiment," "The Mutation" and "The Leeches." Additional Actors: Diane Baker, J.D. Cannon, James Daly, Roddy McDowall, Laurence Naismith, Harold Gould, Lawrence Montaigne, Suzanne Pleshette, Edward Andrews, Arthur Hill. Disc 2 includes the following episodes: "Genesis," "Vikor," "Nightmare" and "Doomsday Minus One." Additional Actors: Carol Rossen, John Larch, Frank Overton, Phillip Pine, William Sargent, Jack Lord, Diana Hyland, Alfred Ryder, Kathleen Widdoes, James Callahan, William Windom, Andrew Duggan. Disc 3 includes the following episodes: "Quantity: Unknown," "The Innocent" and "The Ivy Curtain." Additional Actors: James Whitmore, Susan Strasberg, Milton Selzer, Michael Rennie, William Smithers, Katherine Justice, John Napier, Jack Warden, Susan Oliver. Disc 4 includes the following episodes: "The Betrayed," "Storm," "Panic" and "Moonshot." Additional Actors: Ed Begley, Laura Devon, Norman Fell, Joseph Campanella, Barbara Luna, Simon Scott, Robert Walker, Lynn Loring, Lee Millar, Peter Graves. Disc 5 includes the following episodes: "Wall of Crystal" and "The Condemned." Additional Actors: Peggy Lipton, Burgess Meredith, Linden Chiles, Ralph Bellamy, Murray Hamilton, Larry Ward. CBS/Paramount

SNL 1977 - 1978 Hilarious characters, sharp political satire, and edgy humor are part of the Saturday Night Live tradition. The legacy continues with this third season of the landmark sketch comedy show, whose stellar cast includes Dan Aykroyd, John Belushi, Jane Curtin, Bill Murray, and Gilda Radner. From guest host Charles Grodin's disastrous, unprepared appearance to classic bits featuring The Coneheads, Samurai Warrior, and of course Father Guido Sarducci, this 1977 season boasts plenty of unforgettable moments. While musical performances by Elvis Costello, Billy Joel, and Meat Loaf give a flavor of the era, a revolving door of guest hosts--Steve Martin, Chevy Chase, and O.J. Simpson among them--keep each show fresh. Disc 1 includes the following episodes: "Steve Martin," "Madeline Kahn" and "Hugh Hefner." Additional Actors: Steve Martin, Madeline Kahn, Hugh Hefner. Disc 2 includes the following episodes: "Charles Grodin," "Ray Charles" and "Buck Henry." Additional Actors: Charles Grodin, Ray Charles, Buck Henry. Disc 3 includes the following episodes: "Mary Kay Place," "Miskel Spillman" and "Steve Martin." Additional Actors: Mary Kay Place, Miskel Spillman, Steve Martin. Disc 4 includes the following episodes: "Robert Klein," "Chevy Chase" and "O.J. Simpson." Additional Actors: Robert Klein, Chevy Chase, O.J. Simpson. Disc 5 includes the following episodes: "Art Garfunkel," "Jill Clayburgh" and "Christopher Lee." Additional Actors: Art Garfunkel, Jill Clayburgh, Christopher Lee. Disc 6 includes the following episodes: "Michael Palin," "Michael Sarrazin" and "Steve Martin." Additional Actors: Michael Palin, Michael Sarrazin, Steve Martin. Disc 7 includes the following episodes: "Richard Dreyfuss," "Buck Henry" and "Things We Did Last Summer." Additional Actors: Richard Dreyfuss, Buck Henry. Universal

Fantastic Four World's Greatest Heroes First Season When an experimental space voyage goes awry, four people are charged by cosmic rays. Together they become the Fantastic Four and use their unique powers to help the world battle multiple threats, and to foil the evil plans of their equally powerful enemy, Doctor Doom. All 26 episodes from the first season--including "Trial by Fire," "My Neighbor Was a Skrull," "Impossible," "Atlantis Attacks," and "Scavenger Hunt"--are featured in a four-disc set. Disc 1: "Doomsday," "Molehattan," "Trial by Fire," "Doomed," "Puppet Master," "Zoned Out," "Hard Knocks," "My Neighbor was a Skrull" Additional Release Material: Audio Commentaries - Chris Yost - Head Screenwriter; Craig Kyle - Executive Producer Disc 2: "World's Tiniest Heroes," "De-Mole-Ition," "Impossible," "Bait and Switch," "Annihilation," "Revenge of the Skrulls," "Strings," "Imperius Rex" Disc 3: "Doomsday Plus One," "The Cure," "Frightful," "Out of Time," "Atlantis Attacks," "Shell Games," "Johnny Storm and the Potion of Fire," "Contest of Champions" Additional Release Material: Audio Commentaries - Chris Yost - Head Screenwriter; Craig Kyle - Executive Producer Disc 4: "Doom's Word is Law," "Scavenger Hunt" Additional Release Material: Audio Commentaries - Chris Yost - Head Screenwriter; Craig Kyle - Executive Producer Behind the Scenes - "From Origin to Animation" Featurettes - "Rise of the Rogues" "Traveling to New Dimensions" Text/Photo Galleries: Galleries Comic Book Cover Art Cell Animation Art Production Design Character Development. Fox