Dallas Season 14 In its 14th and final season, Dallas goes out in a gusher of murders and kidnappings, lies and blackmail, seductions and schemes. J.R., Bobby and Cliff - three original characters so big only Big D could hold 'em - are at the heart of the action, surrounded by oil-country folks who joined the series over the years and a passel of dynamic newcomers. And of course there's that Dallas hallmark, a white-knuckle cliffhanger. This time it's a two-part finale inspired by It's a Wonderful Life in which J.R.'s guardian from the great beyond shows the Lone Star State's meanest rattler what the world would have been without him. Think everything's for the better? Then you're in for some surprises! Warner

ER: Fourteenth Season At an ER party, Nurse Chuny Marquez recalls, "I still remember when Mark Green and Doug Ross were running the place." "Who?" asks a newcomer. So much has happened in 14 seasons, so many people have come and gone, but the chaos of saving lives and the dedication of the people who make County General run remain. In this penultimate season of the powerful, award-winning series, personal tragedies threaten - and sometimes strengthen - relationships among the staff. And the patients bring their own compelling stories. A boy genius diagnoses his mysterious illness, a cancer-ridden prison doctor is haunted by the men he put to death, a woman arrives in the ER expecting her 13th baby. Triumph, loss, tears, joy next! Warner

Stone Academy Award® winner Robert De Niro and Oscar® nominee Edward Norton deliver powerful performances as a seasoned corrections official and a scheming inmate whose lives become dangerously intertwined in this "gritty and engrossing thriller" (Steve O'Brien, WCBS-FM). Jack Mabry (De Niro), a parole officer days away from retirement, is asked to review the case of Gerald "Stone" Creeson (Norton), in prison for arson. Now eligible for early release, Stone needs to convince Jack he has reformed, but his attempts to influence the older man's decision with his wife Lucetta (Milla Jovovich) have profound and unexpected effects on them both. This tale of passion, betrayal and corruption skillfully weaves together the parallel journeys of two men grappling with dark impulses, as the line between lawman and lawbreaker becomes precariously thin. Anchor Bay

Bleach Volume 7 - 122-133 This hit Japanese anime series based on the manga by Tite Kubo follows the adventures of spirit-seeing teen superhero Ichigo Kurosaki as he and his supernatural sidekick, Rukia Kuchiki, round up lost souls. Ichigo first inherits his powers from a wounded Rukia, who is in fact a shinigami, or soul reaper. Forced to live temporarily in an artificial human body, Rukia must combine her otherworldly abilities with Ichigo's. Vol. 7 includes episodes 25-28. Viz/Warner

Mannix Season 4 Golden Globe winner Mike Connors stars as private eye Joe Mannix in this hard-hitting detective series set in Los Angeles. With the help of his secretary, Peggy (Gail Fisher), and the local police, Mannix risks life and limb to bring the bad guys to justice. In Season 4, Mannix fends off a menacing stalker while searching for a missing woman, investigates a helicopter crash connected to a former Nazi and risks losing his license when he's framed. Disc 1 includes the following episodes: "A Ticket to the Eclipse," "One for the Lady," "Time Out of Mind" and "Figures in a Landscape." Disc 2 includes the following episodes: "The Mouse That Died," "The Lost Art of Dying," "The Other Game in Town" and "The World Between." Disc 3 includes the following episodes: "Sunburst," "To Cage a Seagull," "Bang, Bang, You're Dead" and "Deja Vu." Disc 4 includes the following episodes: "Duet for Three," "Round Trip to Nowhere," "What Happened to Sunday?" and "The Judas Touch." Disc 5 includes the following episodes: "With Intent To Kill," "The Crime That Wasn't," "A Gathering of Ghosts" and "A Day Filled with Shadows." Disc 6 includes the following episodes: "Voice In The Dark," "The Color of Murder," "Shadow Play" and "Overkill." Paramount/CBS

Archer Season One Suave secret agent Sterling Archer is the world's most dangerous spy, but political intrigue and global crises are nothing compared to the sexual tension and human resources crises at the intelligence agency where he works. Archer must deal with his over-bearing, over-sexed mother who is also his boss and his femme fatale ex-girlfriend who seems to be sleeping with everyone except him. Embezzlement, mind control, hangovers, and demented double crossings—they're all in a day's work in this outrageously raunchy comedy! Stars H. Benjamin, Judy Greer, Chris Parnell, Aisha Tyler, Jessica Walter. Disc 1 includes the following episodes: "Mole Hunt," "Training Day," "Diversity Hire," "Killing Utne" and "Honeypot." Disc 2 includes the following episodes: "Skorpio," "Skytanic," "The Rock," "Job Offer" and "Dial M for Mother." Fox

Mama Flora's Family Upon being called to help her troubled granddaughter, a Southern black woman in her 70s looks back on a life filled with joy and heartbreak. Vivendi

Haunting of Amelia A man still haunted by the death of his high school girlfriend ten years prior comes into contact with a spirited young waitress who bears a striking resemblance to his dearly departed, only to become drawn into a perplexing supernatural love triangle. It's been a decade since Josh's high school girlfriend was killed in a tragic train-car accident, and he still hasn't gotten over the sudden and jarring loss. He's still living at home with his parents and working at the local pizza parlor, two facts that make his best friend Rusty more than a little concerned. Josh's life seems to have stalled out, until he meets a waitress who looks like his ex-girlfriend reincarnate. Now, as Josh begins to feel as if he's being pulled in two opposite directions, he begins to wonder whether it's the mysterious girl, or his old friend Rusty that's really looking out for him MTI

Shogun 30th Anniversary Full of action and drama, this critically acclaimed TV miniseries follows the adventures of the English navigator Blackthorne (Richard Chamberlain), who survives a devastating shipwreck that lands him in the middle of a political power struggle in feudal Japan. Blackthorne observes as the aspiring Shogun, Lord Toranaga (Toshirô Mifune), and the Emperor war over the title in this Emmy-winning adaptation of James Clavell's best-selling novel. Paramount

Matlock 6th Season Andy Griffith shines again in his signature role as Ben Matlock, the legendary defense attorney who investigates a murder in his hometown, becomes the target of a serial strangler, and even considers giving up his practice! With loving support from Ben's friends - beautiful partner Michelle Thomas (Nancy Stafford), investigator Conrad McMasters (Clarence Gilyard, Jr.), and Assistant D.A. Julie March (Julie Sommers) - Matlock always comes through and saves the day, with good old country know-how. High-priced defense attorney Ben Matlock (Andy Griffith) uses his Southern accent to charm juries while his keen mind uncovers the subtle clues that will acquit his clients. In the sixth season, he returns home for a family reunion, only to be faced with a murder. In other cases, Matlock squares off with a serial killer, defends a teen accused of murdering his abusive father, represents an obnoxious cousin and even retires ... temporarily. Paramount/CBS

Raging Bull With Raging Bull, Martin Scorsese's personal approach to filmmaking is taken to a whole new level. Shooting in a crisp black and white, Scorsese tells the story of middleweight boxer Jake La Motta, played with incredible intensity by Oscar winner Robert De Niro. As La Motta rises through the ranks to earn his first shot at the middleweight crown, he falls in love with Vickie (Cathy Moriarty), a gorgeous girl from his Bronx neighborhood. Jake's inability to express his feelings pours out in the ring and eventually takes over his life in his dealings with his brother, Joey (a brilliant Joe Pesci). Irrational jealousy over Vickie, as well as an insatiable appetite, sends him into a downward spiral that costs him his title, his wife, and his relationship with Joey. As the out-of-control fighter, De Niro delivers one of the screen's most unforgettable performances. Pesci is just as intense as Joey, who finally realizes that he is unable to tame his animalistic brother.

Cinematographer Michael Chapman shoots the film with a stylish flair that fills the boxing scenes with boundless energy and adds immediacy to the arguments that erupt whenever Jake is outside the ring. Simply put, Raging Bull is one of American cinema's masterworks. MGM

Red Hill A young policeman in a sleepy community comes face to face with a notorious killer his very first day on the job in this Western drama from Australia. Shane Cooper (Ryan Kwanten) is a lawman looking for a more peaceful life for himself and his wife, Alice (Claire van der Boom), who is expecting a child. Cooper takes a job as the constable of a small town called Red Hill without ever visiting the place, and in his first day on the job, his superior "Old Bill" Jones (Steve Bisley) and his colleagues don't seem to think much of Cooper, while the people of Red Hill seem like a quiet bunch who prefer to be left alone. But the calm in Red Hill is shattered when Jones gets word that convicted killer Jimmy Conway (Tom E. Lewis) has escaped from prison. Ten years ago, Jones captured Conway and put him behind bars, and it's expected that he'll be making tracks to Red Hill to get revenge. And their suspicions are correct; shortly after the lawmen load up their weapons and report to their posts, Conway shows up with a shotgun and begins exacting bloody revenge. But later, when Conway gets the jump on Cooper and things don't end as expected, Red Hill's newest peace officer begins to suspect foul play. Sony

Welcome To The Rileys Golden Globe winner James Gandolfini, (The Sopranos) is Doug Riley, a man at the crossroads. Ever since the tragic death of his teenage daughter, he's led a life of quiet desperation...and now, something has to give. On a business trip to New Orleans, he encounters Mallory (Kristen Stewart, the Twilight films) - a raw, angry runaway living a dangerous life as a stripper. Moved by emotions he barely understands, Riley abandons his old life to save hers. The tenuous balance is threatened when his wife Lois (Academy Award nominee Melissa Leo, Best Actress, Frozen River, 2008) shakes off the fears that have kept her homebound for years. Now three lost souls seek hope and forgiveness in each other...and together, they discover a rare gift of connection that feels like family. Sony

Hey Vern It's Ernest Complete Series Jim Varney stars in this highly imaginative Saturday morning kid's show that was created at the height of Ernest-mania! Composed of a series of live-action comedy sketches, each show follows a particular weekly theme such as outer space, hobbies, scary things or magic! A Big-Chunk Double-Dip Super-Supreme Show! With the overwhelming success of Ernest Goes to Camp in 1987, Ernest-mania was in full force. The lovable southern bumpkin, a familiar face in numerous television commercials in the 80s, had finally reached the big screen and now it was time for a stint on television in Hey Vern, It's Ernest! Included in this premiere, two-disc collection are Bing's first holiday special, produced in England in 1961; his first color special from 1962 with Mary Martin; Bing Crosby and the Sounds of Christmas with Robert Goulet and Mary Costa from 1971; and Bing's final special, Bing Crosby's Merrie Olde Christmas, which includes the iconic duet of "The Little Drummer Boy/Peace on Earth" with David Bowie. These treasured programs have been meticulously restored from the original film and videotape sources and are presented with all original performances intact. Infinity

Cuba The Accidental Eden This small island varied landscape, its location in the heart of the Caribbean and its longstanding place at the center of Cold War politics have all combined to preserve some of the richest and most unusual natural environments of the hemisphere. For decades, Cuba's wild landscapes lay untouched while its Caribbean neighbors poisoned or paved over their ecological riches. Now, Cuba's priceless treasures are about to face an onslaught. Tourism is already on the rise and most experts predict tourism will double once the US trade embargo ends. What will happen to Cuba's stunning biodiversity - an island filled with amphibians, reptiles and the most biologically diverse freshwater fish in the region? PBS

Dogs Decoded Dogs have been domesticated for longer than any other animal on the planet, and humans have developed a unique relationship with these furry friends. We treat our pets like a part of the family, and feel that they can understand us in a way other animals can't. Now, new research is revealing what dog lovers have suspected all along: Dogs have an uncanny ability to read and respond to human emotions. Humans, in turn, respond to dogs with the same hormone responsible for bonding mothers to their babies. How did this incredible relationship between humans and dogs come to be? And how can dogs, so closely related to fearsome wild wolves, behave so differently? PBS

Trapped in an Elevator Across North America elevators move 325 million passengers every day, and most of the time, people don't give them a second thought. In Trapped In An Elevator, Nova reveals the secret life of these ubiquitous machines. How do elevators work? Are they safe? Why are so many people afraid of them? Nova's cameras will ride the world's fastest elevator to the top of the Burj Dubai, the world's tallest building, and test whether the Burj's elevator system is ready for the task of moving people to unprecedented heights. But will the elevator-wary be comfortable handing over the reins to computers? Everybody has an elevator story. What's yours? PBS

Inception A psychological sci-fi action film about a thief who possesses the power to enter into the dreams of others. Dom Cobb (Leonardo DiCaprio) doesn't steal things, he steals ideas. By projecting himself deep into the subconscious of his targets, he can glean information that even the best computer hackers can't get to. In the world of corporate espionage, Cobb is the ultimate weapon. But even weapons have their weakness, and when Cobb loses everything, he's forced to embark on one final mission in a desperate quest for redemption. This time, Cobb won't be harvesting an idea, but sowing one.

Should he and his team of specialists succeed, they will have discovered a new frontier in the art of psychic espionage. They've planned everything to perfection, and they have all the tools to get the job done. Their mission is complicated, however, by the sudden appearance of a malevolent foe that seems to know exactly what they're up to, and precisely how to stop them. Warner

Knight and Day A single girl en route to a family wedding gets swept up in a fight between a rogue government agent and the FBI in this globe-trotting action comedy from director James Mangold (Walk The Line, 3:10 To Yuma). June Havens (Cameron Diaz) is preparing to board a flight back home for her sister's wedding when she literally bumps into Roy Miller (Tom Cruise) in the middle of a busy airport. A few minutes later, they're making small talk on the plane when June excuses herself to the bathroom, and all hell breaks loose in the fuselage. By the time June emerges Roy has killed everybody on board, including the pilots. After crash-landing the plane in a darkened cornfield, Roy tells June that she should expect a visit from government agents, but warns her that by cooperating with them she risks almost certain death. The following day, Roy's prediction comes true when June is confronted by an imposing gang of government spooks who come under heavy fire while bombarding her with questions about her mysterious traveling companion. Suddenly, Roy is back, and he's once again whisking June away to safety. But what do the agents want, and why do they insist that Roy is the one to be feared, and not them?

Before long the girl who never traveled far from home is off on a wild adventure that will take her from the tropics to Austria, France, and Spain. Somewhere amidst all of the confusion and gunfire, June begins to forge a bond with Roy. Unfortunately, it's never quite clear whether her unpredictable protector is one of the good guys or the bad guys, and by the time Roy reveals that he's attempting to protect a valuable new energy source, there's no time for questions. Paul Dano, Viola Davis, Peter Sarsgaard, Maggie Grace, and Marc Blucas co-star. Fox

The Other Guys A desk-jockey detective and his tough-talking partner get their moment to shine in this buddy police comedy starring Will Ferrell and Mark Wahlberg, and directed by Adam McKay (Anchorman: The Legend Of Ron Burgundy, Talladega Nights: The Ballad Of Ricky Bobby). New York City detective Allen Gamble (Ferrell) is more comfortable pushing pencils than busting bad guys. A meticulous forensic accountant, his numbers are never off. Detective Terry Hoitz (Wahlberg) is Gamble's reluctant partner. Try as Detective Hoitz might to get back on the streets, an embarrassing encounter with Derek Jeter has left a sizable black mark on his permanent record. Detectives Danson (Dwayne Johnson) and Highsmith (Samuel L. Jackson) are the complete opposites of Gamble and Hoitz: unwaveringly confident, they always get their man, and they do it with style to spare. When the time comes for Gamble and Hoitz to prove their mettle and save the day, their incompetence becomes the stuff of legends. Sony
