

New On DVD & Blu-Ray

24 Season 8 Hang on for the adrenaline rush of a lifetime as Jack Bauer (Kiefer Sutherland) unveils darker secrets, faces deadlier conspiracies, and is thrust into more extreme action than ever before in Season 8 of 24! As Day Eight unfolds, Bauer races against the clock to prevent the assassination of a Middle Eastern leader on a vital peace-making mission. Meanwhile, a deadly terrorist threat against New York City intensifies and builds towards an explosive climax. A host of new cast members this season includes Freddie Prinze Jr., Mykelti Williamson, Chris Diamantopoulos, John Boyd, Katee Sackhoff and Jennifer Westfeldt. Relive the electrifying final season of TV's most groundbreaking series ever, including a must-see ending! Fox

Wall Street Money Never Sleeps Ambitious young investment banker Jacob Moore (Shia LaBeouf) discovers that greed is still the name of the game when he forges a fragile alliance with onetime Wall Street hotshot Gordon Gekko (Michael Douglas) shortly after Gekko is released from prison. Having served eight years for securities fraud, money laundering, and racketeering, Gekko emerges from prison to find that his daughter, Winnie (Carey Mulligan), prefers to remain estranged, and that his former Wall Street cohorts are still raking in the cash. Flash-forward to 2008, and Winnie is dating a proprietary trader named Jake Moore (LaBeouf), who expresses a passion for green energy while working for his mentor Louis Zabel (Frank Langella), of Keller Zabel Investments. Despite heading up one of the most prominent investment firms in the country, Louis Zabel is forced to personally fight for the future of Keller Zabel before the Federal Reserve after the company's stock takes a hit due to persistent rumors that it's being dragged down by debt. Denied a bailout from the government, Keller Zabel soon falls victim to a hostile takeover lead by powerful investment bank partner Bretton James (Josh Brolin), of Churchill Schwartz. His job on the line and his mentor out of the picture, Jake discovers that Gordon Gekko is out promoting his new book "Is Greed Good?" and decides to attend a lecture being given by the author at Fordham University. According to Gekko, greed is now sanctioned by the government, and the U.S. economy is on the verge of collapse as a direct result of leveraged debt and wild conjecture. When Jake goes behind Winnie's back to try and repair her relationship with her father, Gekko reveals his compelling theories on the likely reasons for Zabel's downfall. Later, as Jake begins plotting to avenge his mentor, Gekko starts to reveal his true colors. Fox

The A Team Buckle up for an adrenaline-fueled thrill ride starring Liam Neeson, Bradley Cooper, Quinton "Rampage" Jackson and Sharlto Copley. Convicted by a military court for a crime they didn't commit, a daring team of former Special Forces soldiers must utilize their unique talents to break out of prison and tackle their toughest mission yet. It's going to take guts, split-second timing and an arsenal of explosive weapons... this is a job for The A-Team! 1980s TV action gets a reboot with this new version of The A-Team, which shifts the Vietnam vet backstory to a group of Iraq War vets who become mercenaries for hire. Col. John "Hannibal" Smith (Liam Neeson), Templeton "Face" Peck (Bradley Cooper), B.A. Baracus (Quinton "Rampage" Jackson), and H.M. "Howlin' Mad" Murdock (Sharlto Copley) are a group of former Special Forces operatives who have been fighting the good fight for eight years when they're sentenced to military prison for a crime they didn't commit. Breaking out with relative ease, they embark on a treacherous quest to clear their names while being hunted across the globe by Charisa Sosa (Jessica Biel), a high-ranking military officer and one of Face's many former lovers. Meanwhile, mysterious CIA operative Lynch (Patrick Wilson) offers tips that help point the federal fugitives in the right direction, which seems to lead straight to former military contractor Pike (Brian Bloom), who may have been responsible for setting them up in the first place. Just when it seems that the A-Team has all the evidence needed to prove their innocence, however, they discover that their latest mission is just getting started. Fox

Naruto Season 4, Volume 2 Naruto and his fellow Leaf ninja are desperate to find a set of stolen blueprints revealing secrets of the Hidden Leaf Village, and in their search they discover something even more devastating - someone has set paper bombs all over the village. Is the Hidden Leaf doomed to destruction? Then the legendary Toad Sage, Jiraiya, returns to the village, and for Naruto, another amazing adventure begins! Viz/Warner

Family Guy It's A Trap In this spectacular and offensively uproarious final chapter, Luke Skywalker (Chris) and Princess Leia (Lois) must travel to Tatooine to free Han Solo (Peter) by infiltrating the wretched stronghold of Jabba the Hutt (Joe), the galaxy's most loathsome and dreadful gangster. Once reunited, the Rebels team up with a tribe of Ewoks to combat the Imperial forces on the forest moon of Endor. Meanwhile the Emperor (Carter Pewterschmidt) and Darth Vader (Stewie) conspire to turn Luke to the dark side, and young Skywalker is determined to rekindle the spirit of the Jedi within his father. The Galactic Civil War has never been more outrageous, as the Rebel forces gather to attack the seemingly defenseless and incomplete second Death Star in the battle that will determine the fate of the galaxy. Fox

Christmas Carol The Movie Charles Dickens' classic holiday tale comes to sparkling life once again with this glorious animated version. Featuring the voices of Simon Callow, Kate Winslet, and Nicolas Cage, Christmas Carol: The Movie tells the unforgettable story of the meager Bob Cratchit and his cranky boss, Ebenezer Scrooge, who learns to become passionate and caring after he's visited on Christmas Eve by the ghosts of Christmas past, present, and future. Fox

The Garfield Show All You Need Is Love (And Pasta) Hearts, flowers and fur balls are in the air with The Garfield Show: All You Need Is Love (and Pasta). You'll have enough fun and laughter to last through nine lives and nine dishes of lasagna as everyone's favorite droll kitty meanders from one hilarious situation to the next. Whether he's fostering orphan birds, enduring John's quest for the perfect family portrait, or putting up a good front for Liz's parents, Garfield really does love his friends... maybe even more than lasagna. Maybe. Fox

New On DVD & Blu-Ray

Yogi Bear's All-Star Comedy Christmas Caper Yogi Bear and his pal Boo Boo live in Jellystone Park, where they constantly sneak behind the back of Ranger Smith to steal picnic baskets from unsuspecting vacationers. Yogi made his debut in 1958, as part of "The Huckleberry Hound Show." The character proved so popular, he was given his own show in 1960, also sponsored by Kellogg's Cereals. In addition to Yogi, the show featured separate cartoons with the new characters Snagglepuss and Yakky Doodle. Through 1962, 70 Yogi Bear cartoons were produced, all of them featuring Daws Butler as the voice of Yogi, and Don Messick as Boo Boo. In this Christmas Special, Yogi escapes from Jellystone and hides out in a department store - posing as the Store's Santa. Along the way, he helps a little girl to rediscover her faith in Christmas. Warner

Big Love 4th Season For years, Bill Henrickson (Bill Paxton) wished for a world free from the corrupt "Prophet" of Juniper Creek, Roman Grant. Now that Roman appears to be out of the picture, Bill and his family can breathe easily ... or can they? Season 4 continues to tell the story of Bill and his three wives (Jeanne Tripplehorn, Chloe Sevigny and Ginnifer Goodwin) and now-nine children as a new maelstrom of personal issues swirl around Bill as he launches yet another business venture aimed at diversifying his assets: a Mormon-friendly casino he planned in Season 3 with Native-American partners. At the same time, and more surprisingly, Bill eschews a chance to seize the Prophet mantle at Juniper Creek (made available by the apparent demise of Roman Grant) in favor of an even more high-profile calling: running for State Senate in Utah. Disc 1 includes the following episodes: "Free At Last," "The Greater Good" and "Strange Bedfellows." Disc 2 includes the following episodes: "The Mighty and Strong," "Sins of the Father" and "Under One Roof." Disc 3 includes the following episodes: "Blood Atonement," "Next Ticket Out" and "End of Days." HBO

Family Guy It's A Trap In this spectacular and offensively uproarious final chapter, Luke Skywalker (Chris) and Princess Leia (Lois) must travel to Tatooine to free Han Solo (Peter) by infiltrating the wretched stronghold of Jabba the Hutt (Joe), the galaxy's most loathsome and dreadful gangster. Once reunited, the Rebels team up with a tribe of Ewoks to combat the Imperial forces on the forest moon of Endor. Meanwhile the Emperor (Carter Pewterschmidt) and Darth Vader (Stewie) conspire to turn Luke to the dark side, and young Skywalker is determined to rekindle the spirit of the Jedi within his father. The Galactic Civil War has never been more outrageous, as the Rebel forces gather to attack the seemingly defenseless and incomplete second Death Star in the battle that will determine the fate of the galaxy. Fox

Hot Wheels Battle Force Season One Part Two destruction! These elite drivers race through spectacular interdimensional Battle Zones to fight The Vandals and The Sark for the BattleKeys that unlock the portal to Earth. The Battle Force 5 live by their "Never Back Down, Never Give In" pledge, even as their enemies become more devious. In this thrilling six-episode lineup, Vert must outwit Vandals leader Kalus on his home planet, Stanford must defeat The Sark after they infiltrate BF5's secret garage and after a too-close encounter with their evil doppelgangers, the BF5 team accidentally bring the wrong Vert home! Strap in for a pulse-pounding ride full of amazing adventures in out-of-this-world Battle Zones with Hot Wheels Battle Force 5! This action-packed release from the animated series Hot Wheels Battle Force includes 14 episodes of the show, following the adventures of Vert, Agura, Stanford, Zoom, Sherman, and Spinner - the heroes who search for the BattleKeys at lightning fast speeds. Warner

Funny or Die: The Complete First Season HBO's "Funny or Die Presents," based on content seen on funnyordie.com, features outrageously hilarious sketches, skits and routines created by producers such as Will Ferrell and Judd Apatow. Season 1 includes "Space Baby," "Safety Saw" and more. Boasting some of America's best comedians, actors and writers, the shorts feature a drunk drive with a sober driver (Paul Scheer), a mock infomercial and Abraham Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation. HBO

The Andy Griffith Show 50th Anniversary The Andy Griffith Show must hold some kind of record for a television series: eight seasons on the air, ranked no lower than seventh during any individual season, and ending its eight year run as the number one show on television. Talk about going out on top! And watching the episodes from its first five prime years that have been collected in this 50th Anniversary set, one is struck by how deserved its popularity and acclaim are. The show is a miraculous blend of witty comedy, homespun humor, and touching interpersonal relationships which never cross the line into bathos. Its cast is one of the finest ever assembled for a television series with all of the actors etching indelible portraits of their individual characters. The programs have been in eternal syndication for decades, and yet no matter how many times one sees them, they never fail to raise a smile or bring a tear to the eye at appropriate moments. Seventeen episodes have been selected for this anniversary tribute set, and if two or three aren't among the all-time best episodes in the history of the show, they all certainly have earned high rankings in the hearts of Andy Griffith Show fans for many, many years. Yes, Aunt Bee's (Frances Bavier) "kerosene cucumbers" are still losing the blue ribbon to Clara Johnson's (Hope Summers) all spice-enriched pickles. Opie (Ron Howard) still brings home eye-opening stories about the wondrous Mr. McBeevee and takes on the job of nursing some orphaned songbirds. Gomer (Jim Nabors) continues to make his citizen's arrest and complains about how "spidery" it looks underneath the old bandstand. Barney (Don Knotts) finds some fun girls for him and Andy (Andy Griffith) when they are on the outs with Thelma Lou (Betty Lynn) and Helen (Anita Corsaut). The Darlings (the Dillardards) still come to town playing their own custom bluegrass with Andy always the prime focus of Charlene's (Margaret Ann Peterson) attentions. Barney still buys the old clunker for his first car and wreaks havoc on the town with a World War I motorcycle he begins using for highway patrols. These and more make the disc a go-to sampler for the best that Mayberry has to offer. Paramount/CBS

New On DVD & Blu-Ray

The Temptations The Temptations The Temptations The true story of The Temptations, the Soul vocal group of the 1960s, as seen from the viewpoint of the last surviving member, Otis Williams. Beginning from their humble origins in the late 50s and continuing through the 90s and the deaths of the other 4 members. Musically oriented filmmaker Allan Arkush directs this fine biopic which tracks the legendary career of The Temptations. One of R&B's most influential, revered bands, the five men enjoyed overnight success and helped define the Motown period. Like many other success stories, though, this one has a dark side -- with self-destructive impulses and personal problems threatening to destroy the band's reign. In addition to capturing the drama of the group's rise and fall, The Temptations features eight of the classic songs which made them legendary, including "My Girl," "Papa Was A Rollin' Stone," and "Get Ready." Vivendi

Beyblade: Metal Fusion Vol. 2 First there was Pokemon, then there was Bakugan, now there is Beyblade: Metal Fusion! The battle between good and evil is more intense and dangerous than ever as our hero Gingka faces an evil villain and his plot to unleash a long forbidden Beyblade in his quest to take over the world. And only Gingka can stop him! Vivendi

Groucho Marx TV Classics This special 3-disc box set includes the best of Groucho Marx! See Groucho in 16 episodes of the 1950s game show "You Bet Your Life", 2 episodes of "The Hollywood Palace", a rare episode of the lost game show "Anybody Can Play" and much more! This wacky release offers a collection of TV appearances by comic Groucho Marx, including 16 of the best loved episodes of the infamous 1950's game show You Bet Your Life, 2 episodes of The Hollywood Place, as well as an episode of the rarely seen game show Anybody Can Play. Synergy

United States of Tara Second Season Emmy winner Toni Collette returns as Tara (and Alice, Buck and T) in this compelling comedy-drama about a homemaker whose dissociative identity disorder causes aspects of her character to manifest as wildly different personalities. As Tara struggles to integrate her alter egos into everyday life, she finds warm support from husband Max (John Corbett) and their kids, but encounters only skepticism from her resentful sister Charmaine (Rosemarie DeWitt). Disc 1 includes the following episodes: "Yes," "Trouble Junction," "The Truth Hurts," "You Becoming You," "Doin' Time" and "Torando." Disc 2 includes the following episodes: "Dept. of F'd Up Family Services," "Explosive Diorama," "The Family Portrait," "Open House," "To Have and to Hold" and "From This Day Forward."

Paramount/Showtime

Inspector Lewis Series 3 As an adaptation of popular detective novels by Colin Dexter, and a spinoff of the earlier program Inspector Morse, Lewis (re-titled Inspector Lewis for release in North America) originated on Britain's Independent Television Service, and later ran on PBS. Episodes found Inspector Robert Lewis (Kevin Whately) solving crimes amid the backdrop of the idyllic English countryside, with the assist of Detective Sergeant James Hathaway (Laurence Fox). Per its title, this box set includes all five episodes from Series Three: Counter Culture Blues, The Dead Of Winter, Dark Matter, Your Sudden Death Question and Falling Darkness. PBS

Down Under the Sea Dive in and explore some of the most captivating and complex underwater ecosystems in the world -- including those found off the South Australia coast, the Indo-Pacific region and New Guinea -- with this visually stunning IMAX documentary. Helmed by Howard Hall, the arresting film brings viewers face to face with many of the planet's most fascinating creatures and examines the impact global climate change has had on the world's oceans. Infinity

Ocean Adventures with Jean Michel Cousteau Jean-Michel Cousteau, son of famed marine explorer Jacques-Yves Cousteau, continues his father's legacy of education and preservation with this fascinating series of six specials filmed for high-definition television. Episodes include the two-part "Voyage to Kure," which takes viewers to the remote Northwest Hawaiian Archipelago, and "The Gray Whale Obstacle Course," which follows the endangered animals from Baja, California, to the Bering Sea. PBS

Building The Great Cathedrals This installment of NOVA examines how the great medieval cathedrals were built. The architectural marvels, made from stone and by hand, often required the labor of entire towns, and some took 100 years to finish. Many, however, now may collapse. Here, architects, engineers, computer scientists and art historians investigate the secrets used to build them in order to save them, including how the soaring, glass-filled walls were erected. PBS

The Nature of Existence What if you asked the religious experts, gurus, scientists, and everyday people of the world why we exist? Why are we here, and what are we supposed to do about it? What started the Universe, and was it a mistake? Does God exist, and why does he seem so interested in our sex lives? After exploring the phenomenon of Trekkies, filmmaker Roger Nygard took on The Nature of Existence. Nygard roamed the globe to the source of each of the world's philosophies, religions, and belief systems, and interviewed people who have influenced, inspired, or freaked out humanity. Combining an investigative approach with a spiritual quest, the award-winning film is a humorous yet uplifting search for enlightenment, presenting some of the most challenging ideas and extraordinary people you'll ever see. Special Features: The Making of "The Nature Of Existence", trailers, audio commentary, two early short films by Roger Nygard titled, "Poltercube" (with commentary), and "The Destroyers." Walking Shadows

Dying God When a series of chillingly bizarre sex crimes grips the city, sending the murder rate sky-high, morally skewed cop Sean Fallon (James Horan) takes matters into his own hands and launches an underground investigation with the aid of local pimps (led by Lance Henriksen). But the killer they find trumps even their most macabre expectations. Director Fabrice Lambot marks his feature-film debut with this gory horror tale. Green Apple

New On DVD & Blu-Ray

Salt Before becoming a CIA officer, Evelyn Salt swore an oath to duty, honor, and country. She will prove loyal to these when a defector accuses her of being a Russian sleeper spy. Salt goes on the run, using all her skills and years of experience as a covert operative to elude capture, protect her husband, and stay one step ahead of her colleagues at the CIA. Sony

The Lucy Show - 3rd Season The laughs didn't stop after "I Love Lucy" aired its final episode, thanks to this Emmy-winning sitcom that recast Lucille Ball and Vivian Vance as widowed Manhattanite Lucy Carmichael and her best friend, Vivian Bagley, respectively. The show's third season finds Lucy and Viv bungling a babysitting gig for a talking parakeet and hiring a pair of plumbers that are dead ringers for Jack Benny and Bob Hope. This release offers all episodes from the third season of the classic comedy series The Lucy Show, following Lucille Ball through adventures with misbehaving children, financial woes, and more. Disc 1 includes the following episodes: "Lucy, The Good Skate," "Lucy and the Plumber," "Lucy and Winter Sports," "Lucy Gets Amnesia," "Lucy and the Great Bank Robbery" and "Lucy, The Camp Cook." Disc 2 includes the following episodes: "Lucy, The Meter Maid," "Lucy Makes a Pinch," "Lucy Becomes a Father," "Lucy's Contact Lenses," "Lucy Gets Her Maid," "Lucy Gets the Bird" and "Lucy, The Coin Collector." Disc 3 includes the following episodes: "Lucy and the Missing Stamp," "Lucy Meets Danny Kaye," "Lucy and the Ceramic Cat," "Lucy Goes To Vegas," "Lucy and the Monsters," "Lucy and the Countess" and "My Fair Lucy." Disc 4 includes the following episodes: "Lucy and the Countess Lose Weight," "Lucy and the Old Mansion," "Lucy and Arthur Godfrey," "Lucy and the Beauty Doctor," "Lucy, The Stockholder" and "Lucy, the Disc Jockey." Paramount/CBS

Dr. Teri Jory's Strong and Sexy Full Body Workout Dr. Teri Jory is a 3rd degree black belt, professional ice skater/dancer/choreographer and mother of twins. The Poise technique was born when Teri began experimenting with different body positions and movement, combining Pilates, dance and martial arts to regain her figure and get back in shape. For over 8 years Teri has successfully trained women of all ages at her Poise Fitness International studio in California. Teri's work with breast cancer survivors helps them obtain a better quality of life during and in the aftermath of radiation, chemotherapy and surgery. Bayview Films

Have Gun Will Travel Season 5 - Volume 1 In Season 5 of this television Western, Richard Boone returns as Paladin, a fearless latter-day champion of justice who uses his wits and weapons to thwart the bad guys and gals, including a gold-digging saloon girl after an old-timer's wealth. Paladin also prevents a war between Canada and the United States. This season marks the return of Kam Tong as Paladin's valet Hey Boy and features guest stars Charles Bronson and George Kennedy. Paramount/CBS

Perry Mason Season 5 Volume 2 Intrepid defense attorney Perry Mason (Raymond Burr), who offers the most riveting and eloquent closing arguments ever heard in a Los Angeles courtroom, tackles 15 more complex cases with his wise secretary Della Street (Barbara Hale) and energetic investigator Paul Drake (William Hopper). Perry seeks to help a rebellious heiress, find the parents of an abandoned baby and unmask the killer of an actor slain while performing in "Romeo and Juliet." Disc 1 includes the following episodes: "The Case of the Shapely Shadow," "The Case of the Captain's Coins," "The Case of the Tarnished Trademark" and "The Case of the Glamorous Ghost." Disc 2 includes the following episodes: "The Case of the Poison Pen-Pal," "The Case of the Mystified Miner," "The Case of the Crippled Cougar" and "The Case of the Absent Artist." Disc 3 includes the following episodes: "The Case of the Melancholy Marksman," "The Case of the Angry Astronaut," "The Case of the Borrowed Baby" and "The Case of the Counterfeit Crank." Disc 4 includes the following episodes: "The Case of the Ancient Romeo," "The Case of the Promoter's Pillbox" and "The Case of the Lonely Eloper." Paramount/CBS

The Lena Baker Story Both inspiring and heartbreaking, this film based on a true story chronicles the life of an African-American woman named Lena Baker (Tichina Arnold). Lena was born at the turn of the 20th century to a life of hardship: as a child, she picked cotton with her mother (Beverly Todd), and as an adult, she works as a prostitute. Just as she is about to escape the difficult life for a better one, she is arrested and sent to prison for almost a year. After time passes, Lena quits drinking and happily raises her children. But a struggle with a violent white man (Peter Coyote) lands Lena back in prison when he is accidentally killed. Hope & Redemption: The Lena Baker Story recounts the life of a woman whom few have heard of but none can forget after seeing this film. Lionsgate

Pastor Shepherd YouTube sensation Pastor Shepherd made the leap from cyberspace to the big screen in this comedy about a hapless freeze-dried pet salesman who finds himself out of work, and bound for an End Times Revival Event with some seriously quirky traveling companions. Pastor Shepherd lives with his elderly mother, a pill-popping television junkie who now faces bankruptcy for sending all of her money to smooth talking televangelists. When Pastor Shepherd loses his job, he takes his family doctor's advice and hits the road with his mother, their free-spirited neighbor Annamarie (Maria-Elena Laas), and Annamarie's ill-tempered father Phil (Danny Trejo) in order to attend a revival event that promises to transform their fate in ways they never thought possible. SKD USA

Trade In Dueling auto dealerships enter into a competition to sell the most cars in this comedy featuring the final onscreen appearance by actor Corey Haim. Car Kingdom is in big trouble, but the struggling dealership's optimistic owner Marty isn't about to admit defeat to his chief rival Wayne Empire. An ego-maniacal showman with a penchant for wacky sales gimmicks, Wayne will do anything and everything to ensure that his dealership, Empire Cars, gets more sales than Car Kingdom. When Marty and Wayne engage in a direct competition for dominance of the local auto dealer scene, it doesn't take long for things to turn ugly. Desperate, Marty agrees to let a movie crew shoot their latest film in the back room of his dealership. Later, just as Marty begins gearing up for his big Family Day promotion, he realizes that the crew is shooting a porno, and scrambles to ensure that the embarrassing oversight doesn't taint his wholesome image. SKD USA