Casablanca 80th Anniversary 4K Casablanca: easy to enter, but much harder to leave, especially if you're wanted by the Nazis. Such a man is Resistance leader Victor Laszlo (Paul Henreid), whose only hope is Rick Blaine (Humphrey Bogart), a cynical American who sticks his neck out for no one - especially Victor's wife Ilsa (Ingrid Bergman), the ex-lover who broke his heart. Ilsa offers herself in exchange for Laszlo's transport out of the country and bitter Rick must decide what counts more - personal happiness or countless lives hanging in the balance. Winner of three Academy Awards® including Best Picture, Casablanca marks nearly 70 years as a beloved favorite with so many bonuses that no matter how often you've seen it, this beautiful Ultimate Collector's Edition looks like yet another beginning of a beautiful friendship with an unforgettable classic. Casablanca was voted the screen's greatest love story and the #3 film of all time by the American Film Institute (AFI). The classic wartime romance also took Oscars® for Michael Curtiz (Directing); Julius J. Epstein, Philip G. Epstein and Howard Koch (Writing Screenplay) and the studio (Outstanding Motion Picture). In 1989, the United States Library of Congress selected the film as one of the first for preservation in the National Film Registry for being "culturally, historically, or aesthetically significant." A Christmas Miracle For Daisy Whitney (Wagner) runs an interior design firm. She's designing Santa's float for the town's annual Christmas parade when a potential job opportunity comes her way: the full redesign of a landmark home by Christmas Eve. She discovers the home's new owner is Whitney's ex-boyfriend, Connor (Bateman), who has moved to town from Los Angeles with his bright-eyed, young daughter, Daisy (Ruby Tupper). Connor had no intention of becoming a family man, but when his goddaughter is orphaned, he adopts her and commits to becoming a devoted single dad. More than anything, Daisy wishes for a mom to complete her picture-perfect family, and no prospect is as perfect as Whitney. Tall order, but Christmas is a time for miracles. Paramount

Royally Wrapped for Christmas Lindsay, the NY director of an international charity organization, is called to the Kingdom of Veronia by the royal family to interview for the job of overseeing the whole operation. During the interview process, she finds true love with the prince. Paramount

Christmas is You Emma Bloom (Tobin) is given an ultimatum by her boss (Amit) in New York City at Kemp Street Management: go home for the holidays and convince former high-school boyfriend and national recording star Tyler Thorn (MacCaull) to sign with their company. While Emma is an organized assistant, her real dream is to be a singer and songwriter. After firing his manager, Tyler is headed home to Vermont for Christmas for the first time in years. When Emma and Tyler arrive in their hometown, they are immediately immersed in an all-hands-on-deck effort to save the annual Christmas Carol Celebration where they first sang together as kids in the choir. Turns out, a trip down Memory Lane may hit all the right notes for love, though there are a few bumps in the road in the guise of his fired manager, bad cell phone reception and the inability of Emma to admit her feelings for Tyler. Paramount

Much Ado About Christmas After Haley Lloyd has been burned by countless suitors, it's refreshing when shy but handsome Claud falls for her, unaware of her true identity: However, when that truth inevitably comes out, it puts their budding Christmas romance at risk. Paramount

A Kindhearted Christmas Jamie (Jennie Garth), owner of a small-town sightseeing company, has a difficult time navigating the holidays after the death of her husband, who loved giving to others at Christmastime. She gets inspired to give an anonymous donation to a local fundraiser after seeing it on the news, and the whole town gets in the gift-giving spirit. Newscaster Scott (Cameron Mathison) comes to town to uncover the identity of the secret Santa. Paramount
