The Hobbit The Hobbit: An Unexpected Journey is the first chapter in Peter Jackson's new epic trilogy set in Middle-Earth 60 years before J.R.R. Tolkien's The Lord of the Rings saga. Follow Bilbo Baggins as he's swept into a quest to reclaim the lost Dwarf Kingdom of Erebor, long ago conquered by the dragon Smaug. Approached by the wizard Gandalf the Grey, Bilbo finds himself joining a company of thirteen dwarves led by the legendary warrior Thorin Oakenshield. Their journey will take them through treacherous lands swarming with Goblins and Orcs, deadly Wargs, giant Spiders, Shapeshifters and Sorcerers. They must escape the goblin tunnels, where Bilbo meets the creature Gollum who will change his life forever. Alone with Gollum on the shores of an underground lake, the unassuming Bilbo Baggins not only discovers guile and courage that surprise him, he also gains possession of Gollum's "precious" ring that holds unexpected and useful qualities, tied to the fate of all Middle-Earth. Several key talent members from The Lord of the Rings trilogy reprise their roles, along with exciting new cast members. Warner

Hotel Transylvania Welcome to the Hotel Transylvania, Dracula's lavish five-star resort, where monsters and their families can live it up, free to be the monsters they are without humans to bother them. On one special weekend, Dracula has invited some of the world's most famous monsters - Frankenstein and his wife, the Mummy, the Invisible Man, a family of werewolves, and more - to celebrate his daughter Mavis' 118th birthday. For Drac, catering to all of these legendary monsters is no problem - but his world could come crashing down when a human stumbles on the hotel for the first time and takes a shine to Mavis. Features the voices of Adam Sandler, Kevin James and Selena Gomez. Special features include "Goodnight Mr. Foot" mini-movie, deleted scenes, 2 behind-the-scenes featurettes, more. Sony

Police Story /Police Story II In Jackie Chan's Police Story, Kevin (Chan), a heroic cop with the Hong Kong Police Department, is assigned to guard a key witness in the trial of a mobster he single-handedly captured. But the tables are turned when Kevin is duped by the comely witness. The drug boss is then released for lack of evidence, and Kevin is framed for murder. This entertaining action film spawned a successful franchise and is widely considered to be one of Chan's best movies. Police Story 2 finds super-cop Kevin once again at odds with his superiors over his unorthodox, yet effective, tactics. Demoted to a traffic officer, Kevin learns that the mob kingpin he put behind bars is out--and craving revenge! With the mix of high-flying action and hilarious slapstick one expects of a Chan picture, Kevin proceeds on a mission to thwart the criminal's evil bombing plot while trying to keep his beautiful girlfriend (Maggie Cheung) out of harm's way. Shout

Lay the Favorite Get ready to get lucky! Professional odds-maker Dink (Bruce Willis) is running a small-time sports gambling enterprise when a former stripper named Beth (Rebecca Hall) promises to help him score big - and turns his world upside down. With his connections and her knack for numbers, the lucrative business of sports betting will never be the same. Catherine Zeta-Jones and Joshua Jackson round out the talented cast of misfits who are willing to risk everything for their dreams. Sly and sexy, heart-warming and hilarious, Lay The Favorite, directed by Stephen Frears (The Queen, High Fidelity), delivers laughs and thrills in this vivid expose of the world of gambling based on Beth Raymer's best-selling memoir. Anchor Bay

The Mob Doctor Complete Series Feisty doctor Grace Devlin is fast becoming one of Chicago's top young thoracic surgeons, but her life is complicated by a debt she owes to mob boss Constantine Alexander, for whom she must treat injured gangsters and risk everything she holds dear. Sony

Men at Work Get your daily dose of menspiration in this laugh-out-loud comedy series created by writer and director Breckin Meyer (Road Trip, TV's Franklin & Bash). Irreverent and outrageously funny, Men At Work: The Complete First Season follows the misadventures of Milo (Danny Masterson, TV's That '70s Show), Neal (Adam Busch, TV's Buffy the Vampire Slayer), Tyler (Michael Cassidy, Argo) and Gibbs (James Lesure, TV's Las Vegas), four sex-obsessed employees at a Manhattan-based men's magazine who have each other's backs as they mate, date and relate to women. Sony

Thorne In this acclaimed adaptation of Mark Billingham's first two novels, directed by Stephen Hopkins and Benjamin Ross, David Morrissey of The Walking Dead stars as Detective Inspector Tom Thorne, the brilliant but haunted investigator for whom nothing is ever by the book. In Sleepyhead, Thorne's only key to catching a serial killer is a survivor unable to move or communicate. In Scaredycat, Thorne hunts a psychopath who may have formed a depraved partnership. Through it all, he will clash with colleagues, take shocking risks, and battle the personal demons that could destroy his world forever. Anchor Bay

Baltimore Ravens Superbowl XLVII Champions Believe It, Baltimore, your Ravens are once again Super Bowl Champions! With their thrilling 34-31 victory over the San Francisco 49ers, the Ravens put an exclamation point at the end of Ray Lewis' Hall Of Fame career, and rode the talents of Lewis, quarterback Joe Flacco, tailback Ray Rice and a host of others to the second World Championship in franchise history. After capturing the AFC North title for the third straight year, the Ravens topped the Colts and stunned the Broncos and Patriots on their home turf before knocking off the Niners, coached by Head Coach John Harbaugh's brother, Jim, in Super Bowl XLVII. Warner

Strange Frame It is the end of the 28th century. We're on Ganymede, one of the moons of Jupiter. The human race has long since left a decimated Earth. To survive the harsh climates of other planets and moons, humans have genetically modified themselves making skin color and sexual organs a common matter of fashion. Two beautiful musicians, Parker, a soulful saxophonist, and Naia, an impish guitarist, play center stage. They move almost as one, a seamless harmony developed over the years from the bonding and sharing in their struggle to get just this far in their careers. Unfortunately, fame is about to tear them apart. Stars Claudia Black, Tara Strong, Ron Glass. Wolfe

Parental Guidance Billy Crystal and Bette Midler star as Artie and Diane -- an old-school grandfather and his people-pleasing wife, who babysit for their three decidedly 21st century grandchildren while the kids' type-A parents (played by Marisa Tomei and Tom Everett Scott) are away for work. Artie's traditional ideas go toe-to-toe with the kids' (and their parents') cutting-edge, multitasking ways, but this modern family comes to learn that love, understanding, and an openness to trying new and old things, will always keep a family together. Andy Fickman directs from a script by Lisa Addario and Joe Syracuse. Fox

The Sandlot An insecure young boy named Scotty moves into a new town with his recently remarried mother and stepdad. Feeling ostracized as the new kid on the block, Scotty tries to make friends with the other boys. But they spurn him when they realize that Scotty knows next to nothing about baseball not even who the "Great Bambino" (Babe Ruth) is. Dejected and lonely, Scotty begins to feel he will always be an outsider. Then Benny "The Jet" Rodriguez, the best ballplayer in school, befriends him and things change quickly: the boys are more willing to accept Scotty, despite their reservations, and they have fun playing ball together all summer. But a mystery lurks in this small town, a tale told in hushed tones about a creature called "The Beast". According to legend, the furry monster lives just beyond the left field fence of the sandlot devouring baseballs in lieu of little boys. Scotty and Benny embark on an adventure into the lair of this mythic behemoth, and their heroic exploits finally make Scotty a fully-accepted member of the gang. The already popular Benny becomes a living legend to the other boys. Fox

Iron Man: Rise of Technovore Billionaire Tony Stark, in his Iron Man armor, prevents an attack from a mysterious new foe, but innocent bystanders are killed, including his best friend War Machine, Lt. Colonel James Rhodes. Detained for questioning by S.H.I.E.L.D., Iron Man escapes, determined to find the mastermind behind the attack. Pursued by Black Widow and Hawkeye, Iron Man enlists the help of the ruthless vigilante the Punisher. But can the Armored Avenger handle what he finds when he catches the person responsible and is forced to face his deadliest weapon, a biotechnology called Technovore that could wipe out all life on the planet? Sony

The Borgias Season One Is a complex, unvarnished portrait of one of history's most intriguing families. Oscar-winner Jeremy Irons stars as Rodrigo Borgia, the cunning, manipulative patriarch of the Borgia family who ascends to the highest circles of power within Renaissance-era Italy. The series begins as Rodrigo becomes Pope Alexander VI, propelling him, his two Machiavellian sons Cesare and Juan, and his scandalously beautiful daughter, Lucrezia, to become the most powerful and influential family of the Italian Renaissance. Also stars David Oakes, Francois Arnaud, Holliday Grainger, Aidan Alexander, Emmanuelle Chriqui, Ronan Vibert, Mark Noble, Colm Feore, Joanne Whalley. Showtime

The Borgias Season 2 The Borgias return for more seduction, schemes, and outright villainy in all 10 riveting episodes from the second season. Academy Award winner Jeremy Irons is back as Rodrigo Borgia, the power-hungry patriarch of the Borgia clan, who has schemed his way to the top of Roman society as Pope Alexander VI. But with absolute power comes even more powerful enemies who will stop at nothing to see him toppled. While the Pope schemes to destroy his foes, his mistress Giulia Farnese (Lotte Verbeek) realizes her position in the bedroom is precarious at best; daughter Lucrezia (Holliday Grainger) seduces new suitors while caring for her illicit baby; and brothers Cesare (Francois Arnaud) and Juan (David Oakes) take sibling rivalry to a whole new level of deviancy. Be there for every stunning moment of the critically acclaimed crime drama with a royal pedigree. Showtime

To The Arctic To The Arctic takes you on a never before seen journey through the power of the IMAX lens into the lives of a mother polar bear and her two seven-month-old cubs as they navigate the changing Arctic wilderness they call home. Captivating, adventurous, and intimate footage brings you up close and personal with this family's struggle to survive in a frigid and dynamic environment of melting ice, immense glaciers, spectacular waterfalls, and majestic snow-bound peaks. Three-time Academy Award® winner Meryl Streep narrates To The Arctic. Special Features: Includes UltraViolet so you can enjoy the film on many different compatible devices. Warner

Deadball The demented masterminds behind the cult hit Battlefield Baseball (2003) reteam for this mind-melting companion film set in a nightmarish reform school, where baseball prodigy-turned notorious juvenile delinquent Jubeh Yakyu is forced to compete in a bloody baseball tournament in order to solve the mysterious death of his younger brother, a convicted spree killer. Once upon a time, teenage ball-player Jubeh (thirty-something Tak Sakaguchi reprising his role) was on his way to the major leagues. But when his ferocious fireball pitch claimed the life of his beloved father, Jubeh hung up his glove, and turned his back on baseball. His new home now is Pterodactyl Juvenile Reformatory, a dead end hellhole that's filled with cut-throat criminals. With Nazi blood pumping through her stone cold heart, ruthless Headmistress Ishihara presides over Pterodactyl with an iron fist. Meanwhile her cruel servant Ilsa takes sadistic pleasure in the suffering of the inmates. Shortly after learning that his psychotic younger brother Musashi previously perished in this same vile reformatory, Jubeh is presented with the option of using his formidable baseball skills to lead Pterodactyl's baseball team The Gauntlets in the national league tournament, or seeing his cellmate Four Eyes (Mari Hoshino) suffer an agonizing death. Now, as the tournament gets underway, and The Gauntlets face off against a series of baseball teams, each more powerful and evil than the last, Jubeh fights to stay alive in order to find out whatever became of his long-lost little brother. Well Go

Stitches Years after their prank on young Tommy's (Tommy Knight, Doctor Who) birthday left hired clown Stitches (Ross Noble) dead on the kitchen floor, Tommy's childhood friends gather to plan one last birthday party to end all parties. But they didn't count on the degenerate jester returning from the grave to seek vengeance on the teens who caused his untimely end. Now Tommy and his friends are on the run from an undead jokester who's ready to use every trick in the book to exact his revenge. Director Conor McMahon delivers a delirious slasher with Stitches, the hilariously twisted and blood soaked tale of one very bad clown. Dark Sky

Ironman Armored Adventures Season 2, Volume 3 Join Tony Stark and his friends as they battle it out to keep control of his father's company, Stark Enterprises and protect the original Iron Man armor! This Must Be the Place Fifty-year-old retired goth rocker Cheyenne (Sean Penn) travels from London to New York to visit his dying father, and then journeys across the United States on a mission to seek revenge against the elusive ex-Nazi war criminal who persecuted his dad in Auschwitz.

Despondent after two of his young fans commit suicide, Cheyenne retreats to his Dublin mansion and begins living off of his royalties alongside his down-to-earth wife Jane (Frances McDormand). Later, he receives word that his father is dying in New York City. Although they haven't spoken in 30 years, he boards the first available flight to bid his dad farewell.

Unfortunately, Cheyenne arrives too late. Upon reconnecting with his cousin Richard (Liron Levo), however, the morose musician learns that his father, a Holocaust survivor, had been tracking Auschwitz guard Aloise Lange (Heinz Lieven) around America for decades. Filled with ennui yet determined not to let Lange escape unpunished, Cheyenne vows to pick up the mission his father left uncompleted. Anchor Bay

Atlas Shrugged Part 2 As an oppressive government attempts to seize control of a world on the brink of collapse, one woman makes a discovery that could put power back into the hands of the people in this sprawling adaptation of Ayn Rand's famous novel. As the economy buckles, unemployment skyrockets and the price of oil reaches an all-time high, the world's greatest minds all begin to disappear without a trace. But just when it seems as if all hope is lost, Taggart Transcontinental Vice President in Charge of Operations Dagny Taggart (Samantha Mathis) discovers a revolutionary motor that can harvest unlimited energy without the need for fossil fuels. But without the inventor to reveal all its secrets, the motor is useless. Now, as a tyrannical government rises, word of the radical new invention begins to spread and Taggart must race to find the one person who knows how to harness its power before it falls into the wrong hands, and all hope is lost. Fox

Not Suitable For Children Everybody loves Jonah (Ryan Kwanten) - especially the ladies. He's young, hot, sharing a cool house with his best friends Gus (Ryan Corr) and Stevie (Sarah Snook), and throwing parties that rock and keep the bills paid. Then: that awkward moment when your random one-night-stand asks, is that a lump? Boom. Jonah's got testicular cancer. His life isn't at risk, but the impending treatment will leave him completely infertile. Jonah realizes to everyone's shock: he wants to be a dad. His attempts at the sperm bank are a failure. His only choice is natural conception within the next four weeks. He's gotta procreate before it's too late. What follows is a rousing (get it?) parade of ex-girlfriends, mistaken match-ups, surrogate slip-ups and a whole lot of Baby Daddy Drama. Poor Jonah may be out of options - until he starts listening to his friends and his heart, and realizes that a perfect candidate might be closer than anyone would think. Well Go USA

UltraMarines It is the 41st Millennium, and the only force that stands between humanity and alien hordes are the Space Marines.
